I welcome you with open arms to my book of treasures It s a book for all seasons and for all occasions and it comes to you from me with armfuls of effusive greetings and salutations trailing clouds of glory and affection this offering of treasures made specially for you Joanna Lumley Over the years Joanna Lumley has kept private notebooks filled with her favourite writings thoughts and quotes Now for the first time she opens her Book of Treasures to share some of her many and varied jottings with readers This collection of chosen writings interspersed with narration from Joanna features the lines of her best loved authors from Shakespeare to Emily Dickinson pearls of wisdom that she has heard or read and nuggets of trivia and miscellanea that have made her happy The book is full of surprise and variety the wistful keeps company with the acerbic the sincere slips in besides the absurd And the result is a jewel box of delights filled with fabulous titbits The Road Gets Better from Here Adrian Scott,2008 With virtually no experience and absolutely no support Adrian rides a basic stock motorbike 20 000kms across nine countries in three months to fulfill a lifelong dream He sets off from the bleak windswept former gulag gateway city of Magadan in a remote corner of Siberia but before the day is out he crashes badly breaking his bike and seriously injuring himself He is completely alone He struggles on through swamps bogs and mud tracks and nearly drowns in the icy rapids along Stalin s infamous Road of Bones Although it is summer in Siberia it is freezing and the driving rain is relentless When the sun does appear he is attacked by fierce squadrons of giant mosquitoes and with wild bears roaming he cannot stop often riding for days at a time Sheer physical strength saves his life on numerous occasions He battles on deep into central Russia across the vast Steppes of Kazakhstan and on through the scaring Taklimakan Desert in remote western China He scales the breathtaking Pamirs and rides across the roof of the world before entering the fabled Silk Road cities of Samarkand Bukhara and Chive He scurries across oddball Turkmenism and on across ancient Persia before finally arriving at his destination exotic Istanbul At every turn Adrian is adopted by a vast array of characters each with stories to tell and who extraordinarily expect nothing in return tough Siberian truck drivers frontier road workers border guards desperate villagers drug addled soldiers and crazy modern day traders each insisting that he join them in their homes to share their lives and most of their provisions It is these encounters which provide such a rich and compelling subtext to his extraordinary journey Thunder & Sunshine Alastair Humphreys, 2015-10-01 Alistair Humphreys cycled around the world a journey of 46 000 miles This inspiring story traces the second leg of his travels the length of South and North America the breadth of Asia and back across Europe crossing the mountains and salt flats of South America canoeing the Five Finger Rapids of the Yukon River and braving a Siberian Winter with only the flimsiest tent to protect him from the elements

Libya. A love lived, a life betrayed Susan M. Sandover, 2016-10-24 Reader I married him a Libyan career diplomat For over three decades we lived in Libya and his various postings world wide Libya A love lived a life betrayed follows the trajectory of Susan M Sandover who was lucky enough to have chosen an enlightened forward thinking Libyan career diplomat Bashir to spend her life with They supported each other through the traumas difficulties and frankly terrifying experiences associated with the Gaddafi regime of US and NATO bombings coups a revolution and a blasphemy case but also enjoyed years of good times together The resulting stories are partially his partially hers and partially theirs Sadly before he found the time or a safe place to write down his experiences in the Libyan diplomatic corps and to denounce the Gaddafi regime Bashir died In spite of his family s efforts to destroy their relationship and appropriate his land during his illness he made sure Susan had a safe place to live It was only when Susan was alone that she experienced the full force of Sharia inheritance law and its tenets as applied to widows she was entitled to one quarter of his property the balance going to his siblings hence the subtitle of the book 9 36 Susan s life was never dull with Bashir at times spine chilling but always filled with love and happiness Through all of these stories and many more Susan displays her vast insider knowledge on Libya s political social and cultural history together with details on the final year of the Gaddafi regime The remaining chapters comment on post revolutionary Libya and the missed opportunities for reconciliation

Living in Romantic Baghdad Ida Donges Staudt, 2012-08-06 In 1924 an adventurous young couple accepted a commission to open an American school for boys in Baghdad Setting foot on Iraqi soil the very day that the Constituent Assembly convened in Baghdad to frame a constitution for the new nation Ida Staudt and her husband Calvin witnessed the birth of this fledgling country For the next twenty three years they taught hundreds of young boys whose ethnicity religious background and economic status were as varied as the region itself Cultivating strong bonds with their students and their families the Staudts were welcomed into their lives and homes ranging from the royal palace to refugee huts and Bedouin tents In her enlightening memoir Staudt skillfully interweaves the political and historical setting with personal anecdotes recalling the people she encountered and the places she explored With vivid descriptions she relates the complexities of the people the grandeur of the antiquities and the beauty of the region s topography Living in Romantic Baghdad evokes the city the villages and the communities of Iraq capturing a unique chapter in modern Iraqi history one marked by pluralism and tolerance and putting a human face on a largely misunderstood country
