My Island Home:

My Island Home Neil Murray, 2010 From the iconic Australian song composed by Neil Murray comes an exciting and inspirational story for children of all ages My Island Home tells of the home that we long for and a home that waits for us Bursting with vibrant illustrations by school children from Papunya and Galiwinku and stunning landscapes by renowned Queensland artist Peter Hudson this book is destined to become a classic South Hero Wilbur LeRoy Wood, 1923

Aesthetics and Experience in Music Performance Denis Collins, Klisala Harrison, Samantha Owens, 2008-12-11 Drawing upon a wide range of scholarly enquiry into early music queer musicology ethnomusicology performance practice music education and technology Aesthetics and Experience in Music Performance provides a lively forum for the articulation of varied perspectives on the role of music its interpretation and function in contexts supported by those who practice or experience it The formal and shorter discussion papers included in this scholarly collection were presented at the National Workshop of the Musicological Society of Australia held at the University of Queensland Brisbane in October 2003 The themes of aesthetics and experience are central to this publication and each paper engages in a scholarly dialogue on the technical expressive and embodied aspects of performance The papers included in this publication bring together the research of a wide community of scholars e g musicologists anthropologists ethnomusicologists and linguists working in the field of performance studies and collectively reflect the musicological issues being debated in Australia today Small Worlds, Global Lives Russell King, John Connell, 1999-10-01 Geologists most from Australia and Britain but with some outliers from continental Europe and North America focus on small islands where the scarcity of people and resources make migration substantially important socially and economically The topics include the Azores historical cultural and literary perspectives on emigration from the minor islands of Ireland Nevis and the post war labor movement in Britain islands and the migration experience in the fiction of Jamaica Kincaid from dystopia to utopia on Norfolk Island Tongans online the changing contours of migrant Samoan kinship and finding a retirement place in sunny Corfu Islands in History and Representation Rod Edmond, VANESSA SMITH, 2020-10-28 This innovative collection of essays explores the ways in which islands have been used imagined and theorised both by island dwellers and continentals This study considers how island dwellers conceived of themselves and their relation to proximate mainlands and examines the fascination that islands have long held in the European imagination The collection addresses the significance of islands in the Atlantic economy of the eighteenth century the exploration of the Pacific the important role played by islands in the process of decolonisation and island oriented developments in postcolonial writing Islands were often seen as natural colonies or settings for ideal communities but they were also used as dumping grounds for the unwanted a practice which has continued into the twentieth century The collection argues the need for an island based theory within postcolonial studies and suggests how this might be constructed Covering a historical span from the eighteenth to the twentieth century the contributors include literary and postcolonial critics historians and geographers Kerruish's New illustrated guide to the Isle of Man; ... first impression of five thousand Thomas BOOTH (of Manchester.),1855 Bernice Rebecca Shepard Nichols,1844

Multiculturalism, Whiteness and Otherness in Australia Jon Stratton,2020-07-17 This book examines the experience of race and ethnicity in Australia after the withering away of official multiculturalism The first chapter looks at the formation of the Australian state the role that multiculturalism has played and the impact of neoliberal ideas The second chapter takes nightclubbing in the city of Perth during the 1980s the peak period for official multiculturalism to exemplify how diversity and exclusion functioned in everyday life The third chapter considers the imbrication of Christianity in the Australian socio cultural order and its impact on the limits of multiculturalism with particular concentration on Islam and the Australian Muslim experience Subsequent chapters discuss the exclusionary experience of various groups identified as non white through the lens of films popular music and television programs New Monthly Magazine, and Universal Register Thomas Campbell,Samuel Carter Hall,Edward Bulwer Lytton Baron Lytton,Theodore Edward Hook,Thomas Hood,William Harrison Ainsworth,William Ainsworth,1859 Language, Diaspora, Home Heather Robinson,2023-07-31 This book explores language maintenance and development in the linguistic lives of second third and fourth generation immigrants as they navigate migration and diaspora highlighting the role of women in acting as custodians and gate keepers of family languages towards creating a sense of home The volume features an interdisciplinary approach drawing on work from narrative storytelling literary studies and linguistic anthropology as well as interviews with multiple generations of immigrant families to reflect on the ways these families foster a sense of home and maintain connections to their homelands through language Robinson showcases the voices of a diverse range of families to examine the choices women in immigrant families make between the use of family languages dominant community languages or a mix of the two The volume enhances our understanding of the ways in which immigrants navigate the linguistic landscapes of home and community amid migration and diaspora This book will be of interest to students and scholars in linguistic anthropology sociolinguistics language and gender and language and migration
