excuses an expert doodler a comic story writer extraordinaire and the bane of his teacher's existence In this recent recipient of the 2011 Roald Dahl Funny Prize readers will find an honest silly and laugh out loud book in the format of Tom's battered homework diary crammed full of his scribbles and stories And in his wacky journal you'll find all sorts of comic craziness to make you groan with glee Hear about Tom's worst holiday ever camping sucks and the time his parents went to parents evening groan Tom's battered homework diary is crammed with his scribbles and stories cartoons and ideas as well as comments from the long suffering Mr Fullerman Warning Do not attempt to read this in public You will laugh loudly

A Cry Within Joy Agwu, 2014-08-29 A Cry Within describes two children who were born of the same parents a brother and sister who are always in constant disagreement with each other The boy tends to be very playful and unconcerned while the girl is very articulate in all her ways Their parents believed so much in superstition and tradition and this brings consistent divergent opinions between these parents and their two children The girl who is in the center of everything envisaged the coming of an evil day and succeeded in drawing her brother's attention to her thoughts and feelings concerning a traditional right that was performed on her behalf when she was two years old The boy in like manner was so troubled that he vowed that his sister must not marry a man whom she was betrothed to at the age of two maintaining that his sister has the right of speech and freedom to choose who she wants as a husband On swearing to stop at nothing to save her sister from being a victim of a tradition which he considers insignificant an indirect intimidation and injustice against women and children related his concerns to his friends

This Is Our Story Janet Wootton, 2013-01-07 The story of women's ministry is longer and far more varied than most people imagine This book tells the story of women's ministry in the Free Churches and looks at its impact on the ways we worship and live out our Christian lives Women have ministered in garrets and gutters at home and on the mission field Today women are fully engaged in ministry within our multicultural society bringing a diversity of voices to match the diversity of the world in which we live Six well known contributors who are themselves involved in the story of women's ministry explore issues of leadership and authority preaching and worship global perspectives the relation to feminist theology and the ecumenical setting Their contributions are complemented by the voice of experience Women from varied backgrounds tell their own stories of being called to a ministry that sometimes doesn't fit of wrestling with the traditions that have nurtured their faith and that can put obstacles in their way Here we see something of the variety and of the rich texture of women's ministries in the contemporary church Some of the women represented here have found their journey to ministry uncomplicated Others have traveled long and painful roads meeting opposition and hostility Many have moved from trying to be one of the boys to the recognition that their gender can have an influence on their ministry The stories interact with the articles bringing many lively and dramatic voices to the telling of our story

Hardships and Magic Renate Doost-Schneider, 2012 This episodic memoir of a girl's life in Germany through World War II and its aftermath offers vivid descriptions of the feelings and experiences of a child's life in tumultuous times Brief intense memories of the young child are here recalled in the vocabulary of the adult Gradually they turn into longer narratives as the child grows older Strung together and interwoven they become a colorful tapestry depicting one family s evolution through many hardships as well as periods of beauty and enchantment Back cover The Droppings Off A Living Tree Brian Frost,

Rosaleen's Diary Rosaleen O'Brien, Dr, 2011-06-01 Description This autobiography intercedes factual reminiscences in prose with later poems reflecting on the wider implications of Rosaleen s life These implications stretch to encompass all those who may have suffered at the hands of the state in Ireland About the Author I have been in receipt of trauma counselling since 1999 on a daily basis at times speaking till the early hours of the morning Support from my trauma Counsellor helps me to come to terms with accepting that what has happened to me cannot now be changed I cannot ever forgive those who had a vicarious liability to look after me and failed As a result of being locked away for some years all because we were poor has brought certain limitations to my day to day life Writing is a form of therapy and allows me to be free to be the person that I want to be and should have been my birthright Through writing I can reach out to others who may have had such an unfortunate experience as myself Daily flashbacks can be upsetting and I fill my life with things to do so as to block them out Day to day life can be exhausting and coping mechanisms that I learnt in order to survive have not helped me in the outside world God help all fellow survivors and perhaps one day Ireland will accept the terrible price we paid Shame on all you right thinking residents in Ireland to allow the government and Catholic Church to ignore harm done to me and many others who are either dead or too ill to tell their story Thanks to Chipmunk publishing I have been able to confront my demons and a Big Thank you to Reatha my trauma counsellor without her I would not be here today writing about my stolen life
