My Single Memoirs:

Moravian Women's Memoirs, 1997-05-01 Moravian Women's Memoirs is made up of the autobiographical writings of thirty of the women who lived in the major North American Moravian settlement of Bethlehem Pennsylvania at varying points in the eighteenth century What follows are their memoirs fascinating documents that contain insights into the lives of the women and men who lived in the Moravian communities in North America These Moravian women's memoirs reveal the intersection of the private and the public spheres of their lives They are records of their spiritual paths in a world that in most cases challenged the bounds of knowledge inherited from their parents from the Preface One from the Least and Disappearing Generation- a Memoir of a Depression Era Kid Clarence G. Oliver, 2006-04-12 The Great Depression of the 1930s was a challenging time for most families especially those in the Dust Bowl states such as Oklahoma This is a true story of a young boy born just three months before the Crash of 1929 told with reflections on his growing up in Ada Oklahoma during the 1930s and 1940s as his and other neighborhood families struggled for survival and then recovered as the nation began to experience the Happy Days are Here Again promised by a new president Franklin Delano Roosevelt The book covers the childhood and youth years ending with high school graduation when writer recognizes that he has miles to go before I sleep Young Oliver hawked newspapers in Ada's downtown business area as a seven year old moved on to paper routes and other jobs and learned important life skills through family church work Scouting neighborhood activities and especially as he became the eyes for a loving blind grandfather who despite that handicap ran a small neighborhood store and taught the young man how to see with the mind's eye People and events remembered from childhood days are sometimes part fact and part perception The people existed and the events occurred The blending of reality with the thoughts and impressions left in the mind of a young child become the memories of an adult and are shared so that today's generation and future generations will know what life was like in that era These are reflections on the joys and trials neighborhood incidents play the murder of a neighbor falling in love memories of one person from the generation which was the smallest in number of all recent generations and one which is rapidly disappearing Naked in the Driveway: A One-Week Memoir of a Life-Crises Adventure Tour Laura White, 2020-11-16 A single mother of two finds herself naked and covered in mud in a stranger's driveway several states away from home Frustrated with life not being anything like she had hoped for by a certain age Laura went off the grid on a spontaneous one week journey to find peace She recalls this story of survival and accidental exposure with hope sarcasm and the same transparency as swapping stories with close friends over a bottle of wine From Salem Massachusetts to the Appalachian Trail this humorous true tale is a relatable travel journal come to life with photos and QR codes linking to actual events in the story Naked and exhausted Laura undergoes a transformation that gives her the will to live the very life she was trying to leave behind The Rise of the Memoir Alex Zwerdling, 2017 The Rise of the Memoir traces the growth and extraordinarily wide appeal of the memoir Its territory is private rather than public life shame guilt and embarrassment not the achievements celebrated in the public record What accounts for the sharp need writers like Rousseau Woolf Orwell Nabokov Primo Levi and Maxine Hong Kingston felt to write and to publish such works when they might more easily have chosen to remain silent Alex Zwerdling explores why each of these writers felt compelled to write them as that story can be reconstructed from personal materials available in archival collections what internal conflicts they encountered while trying and how each of them resisted the private and public pressures to stop themselves rather than pursuing this confessional route against their own doubts without a reasonable expectation that such works would be welcome in print and eventually find an empathetic audience Reconstructing this process in which a dubious project eventually becomes a compelling product a memoir that will last illuminates both what was at stake and why this serially invented open form has reshaped the expectations of readers who welcomed a vital alternative to the official story

Memoirs of the Geological Survey of India Geological Survey of India,1887 Family Cars Trigger Memoirs H. Kenneth Shook,2012-04 In 1963 Dr H Kenneth Shook attended an auction just four doors down from his apartment in Westminster Maryland to buy a typewriter and instead returned as the home's new owner As a photograph is snapped of his wife and son sitting on the tailgate of the station wagon that would be used to transport their belongings just a short way down the street Shook has no idea that one day that simple photograph will trigger him to write compilation of memories In his second volume of memoirs Shook shares true accounts of his life inspired by his many memories of family cars Beginning with his first recollections at age four Shook provides a glimpse back into a time when mothers stayed home with their children televisions did not have a place in the home and fathers parked the family car on Main Street on a Saturday night to watch the world go by As he details his coming of age journey through childhood college military service and adulthood Shook chronicles not only his life experiences but also the purchases of vehicles that accompanied him on his journey through life that included retired police cars a Dodge Dart and a beloved station wagon Family Cars Trigger Memoirs offers entertaining anecdotes that illustrate the important role that family cars take in one man's journey through life The final portions of this book include memoirs triggered by distant travels and memoirs triggered by other people's memoirs The author also allows two memoirs from his first book to return for an encore performance Memoirs of the Geological Survey of India ,1887 Memoirs and Proceedings of the Manchester Literary & Philosophical Society Manchester Literary and Philosophical Society,1895 The Russian Memoir Beth Holmgren,2003 The essays in this volume seek to appreciate the literary construction of the memoir with its dual agendas of individualized expression and reliable reportage and explore its functions as interpretive history social modelling and political expression in Russian culture The memoirs under scrutiny range widely including those of the private person Princess Natalia Dolgorukaia sophisticated high culture writers Nikolai Zabolotskii Vladimir Nabokov Joseph Brodsky cultural critics and facilitators Lidiia Ginzburg Avdot'ia Panaeva political dissidents Evgeniia Ginzburg Elena Bonner and popular artists filmmaker Elidar Riazanov It examines each memoir for its aesthetic and rhetorical features as well as its cultural circumstances In mapping the memoir's social and historical significance the essays consider a wide range of influences and issues including the specific impact of the author's class gender ideology and life experience on his/her witnessing of Russian culture and society The Anatomical Memoirs of J. G. ... Edited by W. Turner ... With a Biographical Memoir by H. Lonsdale. [With Illustrations.] John GOODSIR, 1868
