Mahalia Tom Stolz, 1998 Characters 1 male 2 female Simple set Including music by various gospel composers as well as hymns and spirituals made famous by Mahalia Jackson this is a joyous celebration of the life and music of the world's greatest gospel singer a humble deeply religious woman whose expressive full throated voice carried her from a three room shanty in New Orleans to appearances before presidents and royalty The joy and inspiration of her heartfelt songs provide a counterpoint to

Honey Bea's Everlasting Gift Lornabelle Gethers, 2013-07-11 This is a story about my great great grandmother Maah on the Plantation in Abbeville South Carolina during the Civil War Era which takes you to my mother Honey Bea in Mount Pleasant Charleston during the Civil Rights Era and it ends with reflections on race relations 150 years later It tells of our struggles as an African American family and how victories were reached through prayers and persistence The first four chapters start off in a slightly Gullah Geechie dialect of Charleston with the modern English interpretation of those chapters at the back of the book for those that are not familiar with the Gullah dialect

MAAH DURING THE 1860s CIVIL WAR ERA Massa aint know that Mae Ann cant stand he tail now and that she be fuh spit in he food and in he water every chance she get since Massa done whip she child worsa than he would do an old mule Now it be a lil fore midnight and we slaves all be fuh sit or fuh lie down in the church just fuh wait on somethin They say President Lincoln done give we somethin that gonna free all of we slaves in the south I know I gonna go to Charleston with my freedom

MAAH WHEN THEY FINALLY GET TO CHARLESTON Lord Charleston be just fuh crawl over with the Negro folks I hey tell that most of the Negro folks in this ya whole country come from these parts and now cause I fuh see what I fuh see I be fuh believe them fuh real They dey yet still got the slave market right ya in Charleston

HONEY BEA IN CHARLESTON SC DURING THE CIVIL RIGHTS ERA IN THE 1960s The pastor continues on with his fervent preaching God is able He brought our people from a mighty long way Oh yes My God is able We have got to have that same kind of faith next week when we go to vote We have got to believe that God is sending deliverance to our people through Kennedy to free us from the Jim Crow Laws just he as he did a hundred years ago when he sent Abraham Lincoln to free the slaves Answer this for me please Is there anything too hard for our God I start thinking about those crazy Jim Crow s laws Just last week we had gone to Woolworth to get a soda float for Sarah I was tired because we had been shopping downtown all day on King Street and spending all my money in the white and Jewish stores Most of the Jewish merchants were usually really nice to my babies and always told me how clean and pretty I always kept them That day I was just too tired so I sat down at the counter at Woolworths The man that worked there refused to serve me because I was sitting down at the counter Niggra you know you cant sit down at this here counter You know the rules He says to me loudly I was getting tired of the silly rules and I was physically tired too I am paying my money just like everyone else that is sitting at the counter and I deserve to be served too He looked at me with scorn in his eyes and his face turned beet red with anger Now you listen here gal I dont care what you are paying You best be gittin out of here or I am gonna have to git you outta here myself and then Im gonna call the patrol man on you I look at him and say My momma always told me that git is for dogs and I am know that I am no dog I am due the same respect that you give to any lady He leaves from behind the counter and comes around the front toward me and my three children I thought about my babies and what would happen to them if the policeman came to arrest me and I had to leave them behind I start to leave and he turns around to go back behind the counter and stumbles over a box in his path He trips over the box and goes flying face forward and all I could think of is Da git for ya Which means that it is good for him that something bad just happened to him as punishment for being so mean to me We get outside and a white man runs up behind us Excuse me mam I just want to say that I a

Behind You Jacqueline Woodson,2010-07-08 A moving story of love and loss from National Book Award winner Jacqueline Woodson Great for fans of Angie Thomas and Nic Stone You are so light you move with the wind and the snow And it lifts you up over a world of sadness and anger and fear Over a world of first kisses and hands touching and someone you re falling in love with She s there now Right there Miah and Ellie were in love Even though Miah was black and Ellie was white they made sense together Then Miah was killed This was the ending And it was the beginning of grief for the many people who loved Miah Now his mother has stopped trying his friends are lost and Ellie doesn t know how to move on And there is Miah watching all of this unable to let go How do we go on after losing someone we love This is the question the living and the dead are asking With the help of each other the living will come together Miah will sit beside them They will feel Miah in the wind see him in the light hear him in their music And Miah will watch over them until he is sure each of those he loved is all right This beautiful sequel to Jacqueline Woodson s If You Come Softly explores the experiences of those left behind after tragedy It is a novel in which through hope understanding and love healing begins

Imagining Grace Kimberly Rae Connor,2000 In this subtle and illuminating study Kimberly Rae Connor surveys examples of contemporary literature drama art and music that extend the literary tradition of African American slave narratives Revealing the powerful creative links between this tradition and liberation theology s search for grace she shows how these artworks profess a liberating theology of racial empathy and reconciliation even if not in traditionally Christian or sacred language From Frederick Douglass s autobiographical writings through Richard Wright s imaginative reconstruction of slavery to Ernest Gaines s Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman and the candescent novels of Toni Morrison slave narratives exhort the reader to step into the experience of the dispossessed Connor underscores the broad influence of the slave narrative by considering nonliterary as well as literary works including Glenn Ligon s introspective art Anna Deavere Smith s one woman performance pieces and Charlie Haden s politically engaged Liberation Music Orchestra Through these works readers listeners and viewers imagine grace on two levels as the liberation of the enslaved from oppression and as their own liberation from prejudice and willed innocence Calling to task a complacent white society that turns a blind eye to deep seated and continuing racial inequalities Imagining Grace shows how these creative endeavors embody the search for grace seeking to expose racism in all its guises and lay claim to political intellectual and spiritual freedom

Only God Has And Knows The Answers Cecilia Hood Ceewee,2023-06-29 First uno and foremost thank U all glory be to God and his magnificent son Jesus About the book As I stated somewhere in these stories turned testimonies when the thought crossed my mind to write the newly fashioned devotional book whether I was watching television eating or doing some female stuff bathing dressing getting to mama s or chilling on our front porch should I wear this or that The ensemble was well put together I did not feel like trying to know if I could style my hair this way or that and left it to its own mind and went forward in the day And after checking me out home and then again for confirmation quickly checking me out as I passed someone s parked car and accepted for eternity you are a negro gypsy hippy bottomline leave your hair as it is It crossed my mind again that you should write something concerning the new diversity and arguabaly that has actually been around since the
