Bernstein and the Pragmatist Turn in Contemporary Philosophy J. Green,2014-01-21 Richard J Bernstein who has played a leading role in the pragmatist turn in contemporary philosophy replies to twelve younger critics in a lively conversation about pragmatism s past present and future as a guiding paradigm for philosophy and related fields Heritage Tourism V. Dao Truong,David W. Knight,2025-07-01 This book provides an overview of research and best practices associated with heritage tourism with a particular focus on Vietnam in conversation with heritage tourism in other Asian contexts These include Iran in the Middle East Sri Lanka in South Asia Japan and China in East Asia Thailand in Southeast Asia and Brunei and the Philippines in the South Pacific By delving into crucial questions and challenges relating to cultural innovation preservation and authenticity it offers key lessons for policy making and theorisation which not only contribute to understanding and improving heritage tourism in Vietnam specifically and in Asia more broadly but also inform efforts to preserve and regenerate both natural and cultural heritage on a global scale It is relevant to researchers and student communities working within areas of heritage sustainability tourism geography and in Asian studies Objectivity Guy Axtell,2016-09-12 What do you find more trustworthy experts or numbers personal know how or objective facts Can science claim special authority based on the objectivity of its methods Are our ethical decisions always better when we strive to be impartial and unbiased Why should we value objectivity and is it achievable anyway These are a few of the thought provoking questions Guy Axtell asks in this comprehensive new text book employing examples from the natural and social sciences as well as philosophy This unique introduction surveys the key issues in a clear and concise way assessing the nature of objectivity and value of the demand to be impartial decision makers Moving beyond the fundamentals Axtell explores contemporary feminist and social epistemological attempts to reconstruct the concept of objectivity explains the implications of the so called science wars for philosophy and the analytical method and the ethical consequences of these debates Objectivity is an excellent introduction to one of the most exciting areas of study in philosophy and science today Students and scholars alike will value this balanced guide to a hotly contested and vitally important topic Memory of the West Reyes Mate, 2022-02-22 This book looks back in order to look forward It is a sustained reflection on the great disillusion Europe experienced after World War I Europeans understood that bombs had buried the Enlightenment They knew that to avoid catastrophe they had to think anew The catastrophe came but Cohen Benjamin Kafka and Rosenzweig had sounded the warning Global Tourism and COVID-19 Alan A. Lew, Joseph M. Cheer, Patrick Brouder, Mary Mostafanezhad, 2021-11-30 This comprehensive book focuses on how the COVID 19 pandemic is transforming travel and tourism globally Despite the devastation caused by COVID 19 authors argue that within the ongoing crisis there is also an opportunity to positively transform the tourism sector in ways that contribute to a more hopeful future for tourism practitioners tourists and host communities As the world emerges from the shadow of COVID 19 there will not be a return to the normal Rather the volume shares a vision of global transformation that is driven at least in part by the changing ways people in the post COVID 19 era may travel and encounter each other and their environments Individual chapters explore topics such as regenerative economies transformational travel critical perspectives on pandemics and tourism sustainable development and resilience post COVID 19 re discovering and re localising tourism global im mobilities transforming tourism management as well as new value systems for travel and tourism including the chance to strengthen social equity and social justice as tourism returns after COVID 19 In this edited volume a series of senior and emerging scholars engage with debates on how to best contribute to more substantial meaningful and positive planetary shifts within the tourism industry The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Geographies Civil Society in Southeast Europe Dane R. Gordon, David C. Durst, 2004 Since the fall of communism in 1989 Southeast Europe has been a site of far reaching societal transformation much of it marked by political crisis economic upheaval ethnic tension and bitter war The book comprises articles investigating the history and development of civil society in post communist Southeast Europe How is civil society to be grasped what are the historical factors shaping the civil societies of the region what is the function of civil society in the transition to democracy and a market economy and what are the prospects for the future development of the civil societies of the region in an age of globalization these are just a few of the major questions addressed in this collection of articles Many of the authors are social scientists philosophers and activists from the region offering first hand critical analysis of the state of civil society in Southeast Europe Teaching Tourism Edelman, Johan, Joppe, Marion, Flaherty, Joan, 2022-02-22 Tourism as an activity is increasingly being criticised for its exploitative and extractive industrial approaches to business Yet it has the power to transform and to regenerate societies cultures and the environment The desire to explore the world around us is deeply embedded in many people s psyche but it comes at a cost to the environment and often to the residents of the visited communities Much of tourism education has been closely linked to preparing students for future professional practice but the challenges and opportunities linked to its consumption require that its future leaders must exhibit very different values and understandings to tackle ever more complex and wicked problems from which tourism cannot dissociate itself This compilation of values based learning experiences can be adapted to suit the needs and disposition of individual instructors and aims not only to engage students in the subject matter but also deepen their understanding of its complexity and interconnectivity and help them become global citizens that lead lives of consequence

Contemporary Pragmatism Issue 2 John R. Shook, Paulo Ghiraldelli, Jr., Paulo Ghiraldelli, 2007 Philosophical Criminology Andrew Millie, 2016-09-21 Philosophical criminology asks big questions about how we get on with one another and what happens when we do not This accessible book in the New Horizons in Criminology series is the first to foreground this growing area The book is structured around six philosophical ideas concerning our relations with others values morality aesthetics order rules and respect Building on the author s theoretical and empirical research the book considers the boundaries of criminology and the scope for greater exchange between criminology and philosophy The book is illustrated using examples from a range of countries and provides a platform for engaging with important topical issues using philosophical and theoretical insights Existence Robert Cummings Neville, 2014-06-05 Religion writes Robert Cummings Neville articulates existential predicaments and provides venues for ecstatic fulfillment Like its companion volumes treating ultimacy and religion Existence advances a systematic philosophical theology to address first order questions found in the array of Axial Age religions Issues arising in the major religious traditions are explored through a complex array of philosophical approaches This second volume shows religion to be the engagement of ultimate realities common to all human beings Neville finds five problematics relative to ultimate boundary conditions of the human world the contingency of existence living under obligation the quest for wholeness engagement with others and the meaning or value in life Common to all human beings and hence religion the engagement with realities is also historically and culturally bound becoming simultaneously socially constructed religions Readers will find Neville s philosophical theology both bold and enlightening running counter to dominant intellectual trends while richly informed by a long and fruitful engagement with theology philosophy and religion East and West The Wiley Handbook of Theoretical and Philosophical Psychology Jack Martin, Jeff Sugarman, Kathleen L.
