The following discourses, with the exception of the second which was given before the Parker Society in 1864, were delivered in Boston Music Hall on Sunday afternoons between the years 1868 and 1872 to the Spiritual Society meeting in that place. Several of them have been published in pamphlet form and have met with a large sale. I send them out in a volume at the request of many who desire them in this more permanent form and because it is thought that they may thus reach and benefit some who otherwise might not notice them.
