The Fifties James R. Gaines, 2022-02-08 Introduction Seeing in the dark Gay rights To be nobody but yourself Feminism Meet Jane Crow Civil rights The war after the wars Ecology Before we knew Epilogue The best of us

Workers' Culture in Imperial Germany Lynn Abrams, 2002-01-31 Workers Culture in Imperial Germany represents the first alternative approach to the study of workers culture in Imperial Germany It is also the first comprehensive historical analysis of the emergence of Germany's modern leisure industry The central concern of the book is the emergence of a distinct workers culture which provided a disparate and heterogeneous working class with a focus of identity in an alien and hostile society Lynn Abrams focuses on the leisure activities enjoyed by workers in the major cities of Bochum and Dusseldorf She provides a comprehensive coverage of a whole range of popular amusements and recreations on offer including festivals pubs Tingel Tangels dance halls clubs and cinema The book is also a major contribution to the social history of working class life in the nineteenth century contributing to the debate over the role of a working class culture in Imperial Germany

Global Perspectives on Global History Dominic Sachsenmaier, 2011-08-04 In recent years historians across the world have become increasingly interested in transnational and global approaches to the past However the debates surrounding this new border crossing movement have remained limited in scope as theoretical exchanges on the tasks responsibilities and potentials of global history have been largely confined to national or regional academic communities In this groundbreaking book Dominic Sachsenmaier sets out to redress this imbalance by offering a series of new perspectives on the global and local flows sociologies of knowledge and hierarchies that are an intrinsic part of historical practice Taking the United States

Germany and China as his main case studies he reflects upon the character of different approaches to global history as well as their social political and cultural contexts He argues that this new global trend in historiography needs to be supported by a corresponding increase in transnational dialogue cooperation and exchange History and Causality M.

Hewitson,2014-01-22 This volume investigates the different attitudes of historians and other social scientists to questions of causality It argues that historical theorists after the linguistic turn have paid surprisingly little attention to causes in spite of the centrality of causation in many contemporary works of history Essays on Twentieth-Century History Michael

Adas,American Historical Association,2010-05-28 Probing the paradoxes of the long twentieth century Unprecedented human opportunity and deprivation to the rise of the United States as a hegemon Teacher Preparation in South Africa Linda

Chisholm,2019-10-09 The book will focus on the emergence of a racially divided system of teacher preparation and its dismantling post apartheid It will explore the policies and politics of discrepant pathways to teacher preparation within the context of international and comparative trends The Transnational in the History of Education Eckhardt

Fuchs,Eugenia Roldán Vera,2019-05-25 This edited volume reflects on how the transnational features in education as well as policies and practices are conceived of as mobile and connected beyond the local Like globalization the transnational is much more than a static reality of the modern world it has become a mode of observation and self reflection that informs education research history and policy in many world regions This book examines the sociocultural project that the transnational turn evident in historical scholarship of the last few decades represents and how a transnational history shapes how historians construct their objects of study It does so from a multinational perspective yet with a view of the different layers of historical meanings associated with the concept of the transnational Toward the Visualization of History Mark Moss,2008-06-19

Over the past 50 years the influence of visuals has impacted society with greater frequency No subject is immune from the power of visual culture and this fact becomes especially pronounced with regards to history and historical discourse Where once the study of the past was books and printed articles the environment has changed and students now enter the lecture hall with a sense of history that has been gleaned from television film photography and other new media They come to understand history based on what they have seen and heard not what they have read What are the implications of this process this visualization of history Mark Moss discusses the impact of visuals on the study of history with an examination of visual culture and the future of print Recognizing the visual bias of the younger generations and using this as a starting point for teaching history is a critical component for reaching students By providing an analysis of photography film television and computer culture Moss uses the Holocaust as an historical case study to illustrate the ways in which visual culture can be used to bring about an awareness of history as well as the potential for visual culture becoming a driving force for social and cultural change The Rise of Empires Sangaralingam Ramesh,2018-11-11 This book describes and evaluates how institutional innovation and technological innovation have impacted on humanity from pre historical times to modern times and how societies have been transformed in history The author interrogates the relationship between innovation and civilisation particularly the dynamic whereby innovation leads to empire building and explores innovation efforts that stimulated economic and social synergies from the Babylonian Empire in 1900 BC up to the British Empire in the twentieth century The author uses historical cross cultural case studies to establish the factors which have given competitive advantages to societies and empires This book will be of interest to researchers and students in political economy economic history economic growth and innovation economics Student Movements of the 1960s Alexander Cruden, 2012-08-22 This fascinating volume explores the historical and cultural events leading up to and following the student movements of the 1960s Readers will learn about issues surrounding the goals of the activists black power feminism and the role of drugs and music This book also includes personal narratives from people who experienced the student movements of the 1960s Essay sources include Lyndon B Johnson Kathie Sarachild Kathryn Jean Lopez and the U S House Committee on Un American Activities Personal narratives include a girl s experience of feminism in the sixties and Mario Savio s tense words about the California students who were facing trial Building Capitalism Linda Clarke, 2011 First published in 1992 this Routledge Revival sees the reissue of a truly original exploration of the nature of urbanization and capitalism Linda Clarke s vital work argues that Urbanization is a product of the social human labour engaged in building as well as a concentration of the labour force The quality of the labour process determines the development of production Changes to the built environment reflect changes in the production process and in particular the development of wage labour To support these arguments the author identifies a qualitatively new historical stage of capitalist building production involving a significant expansion of wage labour and hence capital and the transition from artisan to industrial production Linda Clarke draws from a wide range of original material relating to the development of London from the mid eighteenth to the early nineteenth century to provide a complete description of the development process materials extraction roadbuilding housebuilding paving cleansing etc profiles of builders and contractors involved and a picture of the new working class communities as in Somers Town their living conditions population working environment and politics Marginality Beyond Return Lillian Manzor, 2022-07-29 This study is an exploration of US Cuban theatrical performances written and staged primarily between 1980 and 2000 Lillian Manzor analyzes early plays by Magali Alabau Jorge Ignacio Corti as Mar a Irene Forn s Eduardo Machado Manuel Mart n Jr and Carmelita Tropicana as well as these playwrights participation in three foundational Latine theater projects INTAR s Hispanic Playwrights in Residence Laboratory in New York 1980 1991 Hispanic Playwrights Project at South Coast Repertory Theater in Costa Mesa CA 1986 2004 and The Latino Theater Initiative at Center Theater Group s Mark Taper Forum in Los Angeles 1992 2005 She also studies theatrical projects of reconciliation among Cubans on and off the island in the early 2000s Demonstrating the foundational nature of these artists and projects the book argues that US Cuban theater problematizes both the exile and Cuban American paradigms By investigating US Cuban theater the author theorizes via performance ways in which we can intervene in and reformulate political and representational positionings within the context of hybrid cultural identities This book will of great interest to students and scholars in Performance Studies Transnational Latine Studies Race and Gender studies Homosexuality in Renaissance England Alan Bray,1995 First published in 1982 by Gay Men s Press Reissued in 1995 with a new afterword and updated bibliography Violence and Public Memory Martin Blatt,2023-06-23 Violence and Public Memory assesses the relationship between these two subjects by examining their interconnections in varied case studies across the United States South America Europe the Middle East and Africa Those responsible for the violence discussed in this volume are varied and the political ideologies and structures range from apartheid to fascism to homophobia to military dictatorships but also democracy Racism and state terrorism have played central roles in many of the case studies examined in this book and multiple chapters also engage with the recent rise of the Black Lives Matter movement The sites and history represented in this volume address a range of issues including mass displacement genocide political repression forced disappearances massacres and slavery Across the world there are preserved historic sites memorials and museums that mark places of significant violence and human rights abuse which organizations and activists have specifically worked to preserve and provide a place to face history and its continuing legacy today and chapters across this volume directly engage with the questions and issues that surround these sometimes controversial sites Including photographs of many of the sites and events covered across the volume this is an important book for readers interested in the complex and often difficult history of the relationship between violence and the way it is publicly remembered White, Male and Middle Class Catherine Hall,2013-04-23 What are the relations between feminism and history feminist politics and historical practice What are the connections between gender and class What part have racial identities and ethnic difference played in the construction of Englishness Through a series of provocative and richly detailed essays Catherine Hall explores these questions She argues that feminism has opened up vital new questions for history and transformed familiar historical narratives Class can no longer be understood outside of gender or gender outside of class But English identities have also been rooted in imperial power White Male and Middle Class explores the ways in which middle class masculinities were rooted in conceptions of power over dependants whether black or female The Lesbian and Gay Studies Reader Henry Abelove,2012-10-02 Bringing together forty two groundbreaking essays many of them already classics The Lesbian and Gay Studies Reader provides a much needed introduction to the contemporary state of lesbian gay studies extensively illustrating the range scope diversity appeal and power of the work currently being done in the field Featuring essays by such prominent scholars as Judith Butler John D Emilio Kobena Mercer Adrienne Rich Gayle Rubin and Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick The Lesbian and Gay Studies Reader explores a multitude of sexual ethnic racial and socio economic experiences Ranging across disciplines including history literature critical theory cultural studies African American studies ethnic studies sociology anthropology psychology classics and philosophy this anthology traces the inscription of sexual
