Radio On A Listeners Diary:

Radio On Sarah Vowell, 1997-12-15 A self proclaimed member of Generation X examines what is on the radio day by day and how she as an audience interacts with it from morning to night in a car at home and in the office Mass Communication in India, Fifth Edition Keval J. Kumar, 2020-12-10 Third Completely Revised and Updated Edition Mass Communication in India is a result of the author's in depth study and understanding of the media The book deals with a general introduction to Communication Theory Advertising Television Effects of Media and Development In short the book is designed to give the student of Mass Communication a general and comprehensive view of the modern and traditional media in India It meets the objective of being a text book as well as a book that gives an overview of mass communication in India

Tracking the Audience Karen Buzzard, 2012 In Tracking the Audience The Ratings Industry From Analog to Digital author Karen Buzzard examines the key economic political and competitive factors that have influenced ratings methods dominant in each of the markets for radio TV and the Internet tracing the practice's history from its early beginnings up to its most recent advances Beginning with the birth of the industry in 1929 Tracking the Audience traces the establishment of a standardized ratings currency as it evolved to meet the needs of the analog broadcast system and explores the search for new gold standards necessitated by the devastating effects of the digital revolution Buzzard examines key challenges to the established system by discussing the movement from traditional sampling methods to new more transparent measurements More than a history of the ratings industry itself it also tracks the evolving business model for the broadcast industry Tracking the Audience The Ratings Industry From Analog to Digital shows how the development of conceptual tools designed to measure and package radio TV and Internet audiences is the result of a variety of historical factors With a detailed examination of ratings providers their methods and their attempts to adjust to meet new demands a digital age this volume explains how a standardized broadcast system of audience measurement ratings has evolved and where it is going in the future

Sounds of Belonging Dolores Ines Casillas, 2014-10-17 How Spanish language radio has influenced American and Latino discourse on key current affairs issues such as citizenship and immigration Winner Book of the Year presented by the American Association of Hispanics in Higher Education Honorable Mention for the 2015 Latino Studies Best Book presented by the Latin American Studies Association The last two decades have produced continued Latino population growth and marked shifts in both communications and immigration policy Since the 1990s Spanish language radio has dethroned English language radio stations in major cities across the United States taking over the number one spot in Los Angeles Houston Miami and New York City Investigating the cultural and political history of U S Spanish language broadcasts throughout the twentieth century Sounds of Belonging reveals how these changes have helped Spanish language radio secure its dominance in the major U S radio markets Bringing together theories on the immigration experience with sound and radio studies Dolores Ines Casillas documents how Latinos form listening relationships with Spanish language radio programming Using a vast array of sources from print culture and industry journals to sound archives of radio programming she reflects on institutional growth the evolution of programming genres and reception by the radio industry and listeners to map the trajectory of Spanish language radio from its grassroots origins to the current corporate sponsored business it has become Casillas focuses on Latinos use of Spanish language radio to help navigate their immigrant experiences with U S institutions for example in broadcasting discussions about immigration policies while providing anonymity for a legally vulnerable listenership Sounds of Belonging proposes that debates of citizenship are not always formal personal appeals but a collective experience heard loudly through broadcast radio Sounding Places Karolina Doughty, Michelle Duffy, Theresa Harada, 2019 This edited collection examines the more than representational registers of sound It asks how sound comes to be a meaningful ingredient in the microgeographies of place making through the workings of affect emotion and atmosphere how sound contributes to shaping a variety of embodied and spatially situated experiences and how such aspects can be harnessed methodologically These topics contribute to broader debates on the relations between representation and the non or more than representational that are taking place across the social sciences and humanities in the wake of the cultural turn More specifically the book contributes to the fertile theoretical intersections of sound affect emotion and atmosphere Rating the Audience Mark Balnaves, Tom O'Regan, Ben Goldsmith, 2011-10-11 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Knowing measuring and understanding media audiences have become a multi billion dollar business But the convention that underpins that business audience ratings is in crisis Rating the Audience is the first book to show why and how audience ratings research became a convention an agreement and the first to interrogate the ways that agreement is now under threat Taking a historical approach the book looks at the evolution of audience ratings and the survey industry It goes on to analyse today s media environment looking at the role of the internet and the increased difficulties it presents for measuring audiences The book covers all the major players and controversies such as Facebook s privacy rulings and Google s alliance with Nielsen Offering the first real comparative study it will be critical for media students and professionals Contemporary Latina/o Media Arlene Dávila, Yeidy M. Rivero, 2014-09-12 The cultural politics creating and consuming Latina o mass media Just ten years ago discussions of Latina o media could be safely reduced to a handful of TV channels dominated by Univision and Telemundo Today dramatic changes in the global political economy have resulted in an unprecedented rise in major new media ventures for Latinos as everyone seems to want a piece of the Latina o media market While current scholarship on Latina o media have mostly revolved around important issues of representation and stereotypes this approach does not provide the entire story In Contemporary Latina o Media Arlene Dávila and Yeidy M Rivero bring together an impressive range of leading scholars to move beyond analyses of media representations going behind the scenes to explore issues of production circulation consumption and political economy that affect Latino mass media Working across the disciplines of Latino media cultural studies and communication the contributors examine how Latinos are being affected both by the continued Latin Americanization of genres products and audiences as well as by the whitewashing of mainstream Hollywood media where Latinos have been consistently bypassed While focusing on Spanish language television and radio the essays also touch on the state of Latinos in prime time television and in digital and alternative media Using a transnational approach the volume as a whole explores the ownership importation and circulation of talent and content from Latin America placing the dynamics of the global political economy and cultural politics in the foreground of contemporary analysis of Latino media
