John Zimm

Radio Television Society:

Television R. W. Burns, 1998 This book presents a balanced thorough history of television to 1940 considering the factors technical financial and social which influenced and led to the establishment of many of the world's high definition TV broadcasting services This is a major book in the study of history of science technology and media The Wisconsin Historical Society John Zimm, 2021-03-30 Explore the storied history of this grand Wisconsin treasure the Wisconsin Historical Society older than the state itself From the Society's earliest days as pioneers worked to record history even as it was happening to its struggles to weather the Great Depression and its landmark efforts to record the most important social and political movements of our times From its very start the Society has worked to treasure up the stories of people from every walk of life in every corner of the state The story behind the Wisconsin Historical Society is a uniquely Wisconsin story one that belongs to all who call Wisconsin home Early Television George Shiers, 2014-07-16 Exploring the beginnings of the most influential communications medium of all time this work covers the history of early mechanical and later electronic means of television It takes a chronological approach to the subject from its theoretical conception in the late 1800s through important market experiments just prior to World War II Coverage is global and multilingual with material from French German Russian and English sources Each chapter begins with a historical essay that places the period in context After 1927 each chapter focuses on a single year The coverage weaves together the discoveries and developments in all countries reporting on the work of solitary inventors as well as research teams The text ties together annotated citations that make up the bulk of each chapter and excerpts from important documents or eyewitness accounts Each chapter also contains a chronology of the advances and breakthroughs during the period covered The entire work is carefully cross referenced and indexed to provide easy access Chronology Index Buttress's World Guide to Abbreviations of Organizations Jean C. Swinbank, 2012-12-06 This edition of over 60 000 entries including significantly more than 20% new or revised material not only updates its predecessor but also continues the policy of extending coverage to areas dealt with only sparsely in previous editions Special attention has been paid to the Far East Australasia and Latin America in general and to the People's Republic of China in particular The cross referencing between a defunct organization and its successor indicated by ex and now introduced into the last edition has been extended Otherwise the policies adopted in previous editions have been retained All kinds of organizations are included international national governmental individual large or small but strictly local organizations have been omitted The subject scope includes activities of all kinds in the fields of commerce and industry education law politics public administration religion recreation medicine science and technology The country of origin of a national organization is given in brackets unless it is the home country of the title language or can be deduced readily from the title itself Acronyms of parent bodies of subsidiary organizations are also added in brackets Equivalences are used to link acronyms in different languages for the same organization A select bibliography guides the reader to specialist works
