This second edition of Using Poetry Across the Curriculum: Learning to Love Language offers a comprehensive list of poetry anthologies, poetic picture books and poetic prose works in a wide variety of subject areas. While it maintains the original edition's focus on ideas and resource lists for integration of poetry into all areas of the curriculum, it is thoroughly revised to cover current issues in education and the wealth of new poetry books available. The book is organized by subject areas commonly taught in elementary and middle schools and within these by the national standards in each area. Numerous examples of poetry and poetic prose that can be used to help students understand and appreciate aspects of the standard are listed. A sampling of units that arise from groups of works, writing and performance ideas and links across the curriculum is also included. While many teaching ideas and topics provide references to the standards they meet, this title is unique in starting with those standards and making links across them. A rainbow in the fountain Arjan Tupa, 2013-04-09 In 2012 Arjan Tupa decided to write and publish a poem each day. From the 366 poems he wrote in 2012, 51 are selected and published in A rainbow in the fountain. With the addition of the poem from which this book borrows its title, there's a poem for each week in a year to enjoy. Some of the poems were selected by poetry lovers who have funded the book in a crowd funding campaign; others were nominated by visitors of the A Poem Each Day website. And so this poetry collection is a true work of collaboration between poet and readers. Bible Rhymes: Fifty Two Poems with Commentary James Gregory, 2015-02-22 If you have trouble reading the Bible from beginning to end, this book is your solution. Each of the 52 poems in this collection describes a Bible event, person or message. Each poem is simple, easy to read and provides focus on a biblical topic. The rhythm of a poem increases both interest and long term retention of message. Thought provoking and in depth message content enhance the value of each poem. Furthermore, many of the poems provide encouragement for living life with a purpose and to the fullest. With 52 poems, this book can be used as a yearly devotional or Bible study with one poem or message per week. Topics include creation, salvation, treasures in heaven and many more. Because poems and topics range across both the Old and New Testaments, this book provides a brief overview of the Bible. The Bible verses on which each poem is based are provided along with commentary about the Bible information. Writing Pie Corbett, 1997-07 This is a bank of ideas designed to help teachers to develop the writing of primary school pupils.
