Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1907 The Cartulary of the Knights of St. John of Jerusalem in England Michael Gervers,1982 This critical edition of charters from the great Hospitaller cartulary of 1442 provides a wealth of evidence for the study of both the Hospitallers and Templars in the twelfth to fourteenth centuries By publishing the 230 Essex entries of the prima camera this volume complements Professor Gervers edition of the secunda camera published as RSEH New Series VI which was enthusiastically received as essential reading for all medieval economic and social historians and hailed as a tribute to the editor s scholarship and application The editor s Introduction demonstrates how the documents reveal major differences between the wealthy Templar Order and the far more modest establishment of the Hospitallers and his thorough examination of the manuscript includes an innovative methodology for the dating of undated charters This much awaited edition will provide a valuable source of data for many years to come the basic routes and approximately 20 000 landmarks and places of public interest that are located within a six mile radius of Charing Cross This book breaks the test down into a series of head scratching questions and features enough trivia about the capital to surprise even born and bred Londoners It s the perfect gift for anyone who thinks they know London inside out or wants to learn more British Road Book Cyclists' Touring Club,1898 A History of the County of Essex W.P..
