Parrott, 2004 Technologically outmoded and once nearly swept from the seas tall ships have experienced a fifty year renaissance as sail training and passenger vessels and we are the richer for it After all what sight has more power to stir the soul than a tall ship under sail with its acres of canvas and miles of rigging But that resurgence has had a tragic side and professional mariner and maritime scholar Dan Parrott explores it in Tall Ships Down a groundbreaking reconstruction of the losses of the 316 foot barque Pamir in 1957 the 117 foot brigantine Albatross in 1961 the 117 foot barque Marques in 1984 the 137 foot Pride of Baltimore in 1986 and the 125 foot brig Maria Asumpta in 1995 Together these disasters claimed 112 lives The stories of these majestic ships have been subject to mystery and distortion In some instances even the survivors could not explain what went wrong and in others the official inquiries failed to articulate the most critical lessons hidden in the sudden terrible catastrophes until now Parrott traces the history of each ship from its building and early career through subsequent owners modifications His vivid re creations of each final voyage dissect the circumstances of loss from forensic evidence expert testimony survivors memories and his own considerable experience Carefully examined the evidence shows that contrary to some official findings ignorance of and disregard for age old practices of seamanship were at least as responsible for the tragedies as acts of God In some instances the seeds of a ship s ultimate undoing were planted years before as ill considered structural changes rig modifications and mission creep eroded its stability and seaworthiness Cargo loose in holds hatches unsecured at sea freeing ports timbered shut failure to preserve proper sea room these and other factors emerge from Parrott s analysis as contributing factors Book Jacket Beyond Perception Caroline Gatt, Jan Peter Laurens Loovers, 2025-06-25 This book showcases the way a range of scholars have engaged with Tim Ingold s opus since the publication of his ground breaking The Perception of the Environment in 2000 Ingold s work has become key for a variety of disciplines ranging from anthropology archaeology and human geography to art architecture design and studies of material and visual culture As set out in The Perception of the Environment and subsequent publications Ingold proposed an understanding of the world that placed sentient remembering and imagining organisms or inhabitants some of them human at the heart of an extensive field of socio ecological relations In this work Ingold develops broad ranging analyses of personhood knowledge and skills among many other topics This volume sets out to synthesize critical scholarship drawing on Ingold s work to lay out its principles methods and results and to demonstrate its contribution to reshaping both contemporary anthropology and wider intellectual terrains By bringing together chapters from a variety of scholars all critically furthering Ingold s proposals the book advances a paradigm change occurring in various academic disciplines from fixist to emergence onto epistemologies Kurt Hahn Nick Veevers, Pete Allison, 2011-10-29 Kurt Hahn had a huge influence on the fields of outdoor and experiential learning adventure education and not least badge schemes Gordonstoun Moray and County Badges and Duke of Edinburgh Award throughout the world This book provides a detailed historical account centred on Hahn and the movement which surrounded him of the early development of adventure education up to 1944 This includes an examination of themes present throughout Hahn s educational endeavours It looks at Hahn s founding of Salem School Germany in 1920 and then Gordonstoun School Scotland in 1934 At both of these fee paying schools activities such as sailing and hill walking often through expeditions lasting more than one day played a prominent role in the education of the students At Gordonstoun Hahn expanded his educational ventures through the use of badge schemes to include young people from the surrounding district who were not students at his school Hahn expanded his badge schemes firstly across the county in which Gordonstoun was situated Morayshire and then across Britain The Outward Bound Sea School was founded by Hahn and Lawrence Holt a ship owner at Aberdovey Wales in October 1941 It was a training centre where students could go for four week courses and it followed the badge scheme syllabus During this period Hahn s educational vision was one of those that influenced the Norwood Report and consequently the 1944 Education Act in terms of outdoor activities This act provided the framework within which Outdoor Centres were set up by Local Education Authorities in the UK This book looks at the various contexts which came together through Hahn and which help the reader understand his actions German educational practice Hahn s and Prince Max s owner of Salem School experiences of the First World War and its aftermath and the need to educate people to speak out and act upon their convictions Hahn s and Prince Max s inclusive agenda British educational practice the Second World War and Hahn s expansionist aims Kurt Hahn was one of the field s greatest advocates and this book provides a detailed historical examination of his work and brings light to the complex tapestry of events which led to the rise and development of adventure education The Tall Ships are Sailing Holly Hollins,1982 Nation and
