Sassine Charlotte Baker,2010 Williams Sassine "Saint Monsieur Baly" Charlotte Baker,2010 Body, Sexuality, and Gender Flora Veit-Wild,Dirk Naguschewski,2005 Contains reflections on body sexuality and gender in African literary texts While the sections Gifted Bodies and Queered Bodies show new developments in viewing body and sexuality as creative powers the sections Tainted Bodies and Violated Bodies comprise essays that investigate the exposure of the body to physical aggression and other traumatic experiences Carrefour de cultures Régis Antoine,1993 SAINT MONSIEUR BALLY Williams Sassine,1973 Postcolonial Literature and the Impact of Literacy Neil ten Kortenaar,2011-06-02 Examining images of literacy in African and West Indian novels Neil ten Kortenaar looks at how postcolonial authors have thought about the act of writing itself Writing arrived in many parts of Africa as part of colonization in the twentieth century and with it a whole world of book learning and paper pushing of school and bureaucracy newspapers textbooks and letters candles hurricane lamps and electricity pens paper typewriters and printed type and orthography developed for formerly oral languages Writing only penetrated many layers of West Indian society in the same era The range of writers is wide and includes Chinua Achebe Wole Soyinka and V S Naipaul The chapters rely on close reading of canonical novels but discuss general themes and trends in African and Caribbean literature Ten Kortenaar s sensitive and penetrating treatment of these themes makes this an important contribution to the growing field of postcolonial literary studies Cultures of Colour Chris Horrocks,2012 Colour permeates contemporary visual and material culture and affects our senses beyond the superficial encounter by infiltrating our perceptions and memories and becoming deeply rooted in thought processes that categorise and divide along culturally constructed lines Colour exists as a cultural as well as psycho physical phenomenon and acquires a multitude of meanings within differing historical and cultural contexts The contributors examine how colour becomes imbued with specific symbolic and material meanings that tint our constructions of race gender ideal bodies the relationship of the self to others and of the self to technology and the built environment By highlighting the relationship of colour across media and material culture this volume reveals the complex interplay of cultural connotations discursive practices and socio psychological dynamics of colour in an international context Protée Noir Peter Hawkins,Annette Lavers,1992

Francophone Literatures Belinda Elizabeth Jack,1996 The canon of French literature has been the subject of much debate and now increasingly francophone literatures are demanding more attention in student French literature courses The first study in English of francophone literatures this book introduces the diverse bodies of texts in French from the numerous French speaking areas around the world with separate sections covering Africa French Canada the Creole Islands and Europe and will provide students at both undergraduate and A level with a comprehensive introductory survey of the subject Francophone literatures emerge from rich bi and multi lingual cultures in part as colonial legacies They also challenge the monopoly of the French literary tradition This introductory survey celebrates the linguistic difference of such texts and the creative possibilities offered by deviance from an established tradition demanding new critical approaches The texts studied here cast a new light upon French literature in terms of their diverse perspectives upon writing history politics and culture their violent rewritings subversive versions and parodies sometimes forming an elaborate pastiche of celebrated France texts Guides to further reading a select bibliography and an extensive index combine to make the book an extremely readable introductory overview of a hitherto little explored area

Historical Dictionary of Guinea Thomas O'Toole, Janice E. Baker, 2005-03-16 Thoroughly updated and extensively revised this 4th edition provides a very solid and substantial guide to a better understanding of this richly endowed but poorly understood nation Students and others seeking information about the country will find an introductory narrative accounting of Guinea's political and economic history a chronology that spans the earliest known history of the area to the present day Republic of Guinea 400 dictionary entries covering the personalities and events that made contemporary Guinea and an extensive bibliography of current publications

Les représentations hybrides de la mort dans le roman africain francophone Bomaud Hoffmann, 2014-11-01 Cette présente étude s'intéresse aux représentations de la mort dans le roman africain francophone notamment aux symboles aux espaces aux personnages ou encore aux formes de la mort Contrairement d'autres travaux cet ouvrage met en évidence non seulement l'influence de la culture nigro-africaine et occidentale mais aussi celle de la culture islamique De même il s'agit d'une analyse synchronique et diachronique qui se concentre sur le caractère hybride des représentations de la mort et qui prend aussi en considération leur évolution dans le roman africain francophone Dans ce contexte ce travail propose de répondre plusieurs questions D'une part comment les romanciers africains utilisent-ils les représentations de la mort nigro-africaines occidentales et/ou islamiques Comment les réactualisent-ils Les romanciers africains développent-elles des représentations de la mort spécifiques par rapport leurs collgues masculins D'autre part existe-t-il diverses façons de représenter la mort selon les générations auxquelles appartiennent les auteurs africains Y a-t-il une évolution depuis la première génération de prosateurs ou faut-il au contraire reconnaître des similitudes chez l'ensemble des écrivains africains

L'autre en mémoire Dominique Laporte, 2006 European-language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa Albert S. Gérard, 1986-01-01 The first major comparative study of African writing in western languages European language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa edited by Albert S. Gérard falls into four wide-ranging sections an overview of early contacts and colonial developments Under Western Eyes chapters on Black Consciousness manifest in the debates over Panafricanism and Negritude a group of essays on mental decolonization expressed in Black Power texts at the time of independence struggles and finally Comparative Vistas sketching directions that future comparative study might explore An introductory essay stresses the millennia of writing in Africa side by side with a richly eloquent and artistic set of vernacular oral traditions written and oral traditions have become interwoven in adaptations of imported forms and linguistic innovations that challenge traditional high literary norms Gérard uses the mathematical concept of fuzzy sets to explain why the focus on Black Africa has led him to set aside for future analysis the literatures produced in North Africa which fall under the influence of Muslim civilization as well as the diasporic literatures of the New World Over sixty scholars from twenty two countries contribute specialized studies of creative writing by leading authors in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries such as Achebe Mphahlele Ngugi Senghor Soyinka and Tutuola Critical analyses are organized primarily around regions reflecting different colonial languages imposed through schools and other social institutions Some authors trace the adaptation of western genres others identify syncretism with folktales or myths The volumes are attentive to the heterogeneity of national literatures addressed to polyethnic and multilingual populations and they note the instrumental politics of language in newly independent states A closing chapter Tasks Ahead identifies areas for future scholars to explore

O'Toole,Janice E. Baker,2013-11-07 The most significant thing about Guinea is its potential It is strategically located in West Africa with a well educated and hardworking population and endowed with considerable natural resources indeed enough to make it reasonably affluent if properly utilized But this potential has never really been tapped due mainly to bad politics with military men following a charismatic politician until finally democracy has been achieved So more than half a century after achieving independence the question remains unanswered which way will Guinea turn This fifth edition of Historical Dictionary of Guinea covers the full scope of Guinea s history This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 800 cross referenced entries on key events leaders governmental international religious and other private organizations policies political movements and parties economic elements and many other areas that have shaped the country s trajectory This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Guinea
