On the last day of October in the year 1517, a German monk posted a paper on a church door in Wittenberg. It was written in Latin and was addressed to theologians. It contained a series of statements concerning the doctrine and practice of indulgences. The writer desired to have the matter discussed. It seemed to him that there was something wrong about it and he would be glad to hear what wiser men might say. Here he said: Are indulgences preached and sold through out the Church? Is it right? Is it in accordance with the gospel and the truth? The paper was a question. About the Publisher: Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
