U. Chinn, Sharon Nelson-Barber, 2023-08-04 This book explores ways in which systems of local knowledge culture language and place are foundational for STEM learning in Indigenous communities It is part of a two volume set that addresses a growing recognition that interdisciplinary cross cultural and cross hybrid learning is needed to foster scientific and cultural understandings and move STEM learning toward more just and sustainable futures for all learners Themes of learning from elders through practice and place based experiences are found across cultures Each chapter brings a uniquely Indigenous point of view to the educational transformation efforts taking place in these distinct contexts In the second section the chapters use authentic research stories to explain many ways in which regular disciplinary policies and practices can impact Indigenous students participation in STEM classrooms and careers These authors go on to discuss ways to engage learners in STEM activities that are interconnected with the contexts of their lives The Coloniality of Animal Monstrous

Othering in Children's Books, Films, and Toys Donna Varga, 2024-08-19 The Coloniality of Animal Monstrous Othering in Children's Books Films and Toys examines how the portrayal of animals as physically distorted behaviorally depraved and intellectually defective serves to justify their debasement violation and destruction in materials directed toward young consumers The author argues that this animal monstrous Othering arises from the Eurocentric belief in humans natural superiority over animals and the right to categorize animals in accordance with a scale of worthiness that parallels the subjugation of racialized persons The chapters examine a variety of canonical figures like the dissolute wolf of Red Riding Hood stories and the disfigured titular character of the Wonky Donkey picture book alongside non canonical animals including reprobate pigs degenerate sharks self centered flamingos and wicked piranhas To counter this animal debasement Varga juxtaposes these readings with an examination of materials that articulate harmonious animal human interrelationships without dependence on styles of anthropomorphism that diminish animality
