Saltwater Spirituals And Deeper Blues:

Saltwater Spirituals and Deeper Blues George Elliott Clarke, 1983 Saltwater Spirituals and Deeper Blues George Elliott Clarke, 1983 Belonging Adrienne Clarkson, 2014-09-19 Never has the world experienced greater movement of peoples from one country to another from one continent to another These seismic shifts in population have brought about huge challenges for all societies In this year's Massey Lectures Canada's twenty sixth Governor General and bestselling author Adrienne Clarkson argues that a sense of belonging is a necessary mediation between an individual and a society She masterfully chronicles the evolution of citizenship throughout the ages from the genesis of the idea of the citizen in ancient Greece to the medieval structures of guilds and class from the revolutionary period which gave birth to the modern nation state to present day citizenship based on shared values consensus and pluralism Clarkson places particular emphasis on the Canadian model which promotes immigration parliamentary democracy and the rule of law and the First Nations circle which embodies notions of expansion and equality She concludes by looking forward using the Bhutanese example of Gross National Happiness to determine how we measure up today and how far we have to go to bring into being the citizen and the society of tomorrow Where Beauty Survived George Elliott Clarke, 2021-08-24 A vibrant revealing memoir about the cultural and familial pressures that shaped George Elliott Clarke's early life in the Black Canadian community that he calls Africadia centred in Halifax Nova Scotia As a boy George Elliott Clarke knew that a great deal was expected from him and his two brothers The descendant of a highly accomplished lineage on his paternal side great grandson to William Andrew White the first Black officer non commissioned in the British army George felt called to live up to the family name In contrast his mother's relatives were warm down to earth country folk Such contradictions underlay much of his life and upbringing Black and White country and city outstanding and ordinary high and low With vulnerability and humour George shows us how these dualities shaped him as a poet and thinker At the book's heart is George's turbulent relationship with his father an autodidact who valued art music and books but worked an unfulfilling railway job Bill could be loving and patient but he also acted out destructive frustrations assaulting George's mother and sometimes George and his brothers too Where Beauty Survived is the story of a complicated family of the emotional stress that white racism exerts on Black households of the unique cultural geography of Africadia of a child who became a poet and of long kept secrets Anne of Tim Hortons Herb Wyile, 2011-04-25 Anne of Tim Hortons Globalization and the Reshaping of Atlantic Canadian Literature is a study of the work of over twenty contemporary Atlantic Canadian writers that counters the widespread impression of Atlantic Canada as a quaint and backward place By examining their treatment of work culture and history author Herb Wyile highlights how these writers resist the image of Atlantic Canadians as improvident and regressive if charming folk After an introduction that examines the current place of the region within the Canadian federation and the broader context of economic globalization Anne of Tim Hortons explores how Atlantic Canadian writers present a picture of the region that is much more complex and less quaint than the stereotypes through which it is typically viewed Through the works of authors such as Michael Winter Lisa Moore George Elliott Clarke Rita Joe Frank Barry Alistair MacLeod and Bernice Morgan among others the book looks at the changing and increasingly corporate nature of work the cultural diversification and subversive self consciousness of Atlantic Canadian literature and Atlantic Canadian writers often revisionist approach to the region s history What these writers are engaged in the book contends is a kind of collective readjustment of the image of the region Rather than a marginal place stranded outside of time Atlantic Canada in these works is very much caught up in contemporary economic political and cultural developments particularly the broad sweep of economic globalization Speaking in the Past Tense

Herb Wyile,2009-10-22 Speaking in the Past Tense participates in an expanding critical dialogue on the writing of historical fiction providing a series of reflections on the process from the perspective of those souls intrepid enough to step onto what is practically by definition contested territory Herb Wyile from the Introduction The extermination of the Beothuk the exploration of the Arctic the experiences of soldiers in the trenches during World War I the foibles of Canada s longest serving prime minister the Ojibway sniper who is credited with 378 wartime kills these are just some of the people and events discussed in these candid and wide ranging interviews with eleven authors whose novels are based on events in Canadian history These sometimes startling conversations take the reader behind the scenes of the novels and into the minds of their authors Through them we explore the writers motives for writing the challenges they faced in gathering information and presenting it in fictional form the sometimes hostile reaction they faced after publication and perhaps most interestingly the stories that didn t make it into their novels Speaking in the Past Tense provides fascinating insights into the construction of national historical narratives and myths both those familiar to us and those that are still being written Odysseys Home

George Elliott Clarke,2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature s distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole Reading Wayde Compton Fernando Pérez-García, 2025-06-30 This book is a comprehensive analysis of the literary oeuvre of Wayde Compton examining the interplay between modes of literary production urban commemoration the formation of Black racial identity on the margins of the diaspora and coalitions of solidarity with other communities in Vancouver Stemming from an interdisciplinary perspective that blends Spatial Literary Studies Hip hop epistemology and the transmodern paradigm this book presents a dynamic model of Black identity formation and belonging resulting from the remix of Afro diasporic and transcultural elements and the political commemoration of local Black spaces in an often understudied node of the Black diaspora This book also explores Compton's contribution to recent academic debates on the interaction between the commemoration of Black spaces and the right to the city as well as the engagement with Indigenous calls for the decolonisation of their ancestral lands The analysis of Compton's work allows for the deconstruction of the binaries African Canadian Indigenous settler Hogan's Alley Vancouver and exposes the co-constitutive character of these elements AfroAsian Encounters Heike Raphael-Hernandez, Shannon Steen, 2006-11 How might we understand yellowface performances by African Americans in 1930s swing adaptations of Gilbert and Sullivan's The Mikado Paul Robeson's support of Asian and Asian American struggles or the absorption of hip hop by Asian American youth culture AfroAsian Encounters is the first anthology to look at the mutual influence of and relationships between members of the African and Asian diasporas in the Americas While these two groups have often been thought of as occupying incommensurate if not opposing cultural and political positions scholars from history literature media and the visual arts here trace their interconnections and interactions as well as how they have been set in opposition by white systems of racial domination AfroAsian Encounters probes beyond popular culture to trace the historical lineage of these coalitions from the post Civil War era through the present From the history of Japanese jazz composers to the current popularity of black Asian buddy films like Rush Hour AfroAsian Encounters is a groundbreaking intervention into studies of race and ethnicity and a crucial look at the shifting meaning of race in America in the twenty first century
