Serving God With Heart And Soul The Life Of Pastor Augustus Chao:

Serving God with Heart and Soul Augustus Chao, Sylvia Yu, Canadians for Historical Justice and Racial Reconciliation, 2002 Sheets of Scattered Sand Justin K.H. Tse, 2024-11-15 Justin K H Tse captures the voices of Cantonese Protestant Christians from the San Francisco Vancouver and Hong Kong metropolitan areas as they reflect on their efforts to adapt to secular communities while retaining their identity and beliefs In the context of the transpacific region between Asia and the Americas the Pacific Rim refers to a window of time in which predominant narratives emphasized skilled migration and the rise of multicultural societies the era before the rise of Chinese nationalism in 2012 and the Hong Kong protests Diasporic Cantonese Protestant Christians of this time were frequently portrayed as a homogenous people bringing their Chinese culture and Christian communities from Hong Kong to cities such as Vancouver and San Francisco sometimes contesting liberal developments like same sex marriage but also offering new democratic awareness Sheets of Scattered Sand challenges that depiction of Cantonese Protestants with authentic voices from the community Based on research done in the San Francisco Bay area Vancouver and Hong Kong author Justin K H Tse finds that Cantonese Protestants consider themselves sheets of scattered sand politically disparate and ideologically fragmented but united in a sense of tension with the secular world Tse s work serves as an illuminating prequel to contemporary stories of the Hong Kong protests and a newly emergent Asian American politics underscoring the importance of incorporating these voices in wider reflections on Christianity and secularity 國際華人教會聯盟, 2011-12-01
