Doctors Serving People Edward J Eckenfels,2008-08-01 Today s physicians are medical scientists drilled in the basics of physiology anatomy genetics and chemistry They learn how to crunch data interpret scans and see the human form as a set of separate organs and systems in some stage of disease Missing from their training is a holistic portrait of the patient as a person and as a member of a community Yet a humanistic passion and desire to help people often are the attributes that compel a student toward a career in medicine So what happens along the way to tarnish that idealism Can a new approach to medical education make a difference Doctors Serving People is just such a prescriptive While a professor at Rush Medical College in Chicago Edward J Eckenfels helped initiate and direct a student driven program in which student doctors worked in the poor urban communities during medical school voluntarily and without academic credit In addition to their core curriculum and clinical rotations students served the social and health needs of diverse and disadvantaged populations Now more than ten years old the program serves as an example for other medical schools throughout the country Its story provides a working model of how to reform medical education in America

The Fear App Bill Hanson,2015-12-11 What if you could discover a way to live your life without fear What if a new vegetable that was just discovered could keep you from getting a deadly disease Would you eat it What if a new exercise developed would extend your life some twenty years Would you try it What if the information in The Fear App book would help you to remove those needless fears that run through our minds and keep us from following Gods will in our lives Would you read it The apps we have on our phones were developed to make a function or activity much easier or to assist us in some specific way The Fear App book and the available study guide are similar dynamic tools This book will help you identify the fears you may not even be aware of The Lord has prepared ministry service for all of us to be involved in Ephesians 2 10 If you allow fear to control service decisions youll miss Gods best for your life and the blessings that come with following His will In summary this book is written in such a way that its an easy read with a very practical approach and it isnt too in depth or over the top however it gets right to the point of the fears all of us experience in our lives
