Television History, the Peabody Archive, and Cultural Memory Ethan Thompson, Jeffrey P. Jones, Lucas Hatlen, 2019 Television History The Peabody Archive and Cultural Memory is the product of a multiyear collaboration between the Peabody Awards program and over a dozen media scholars with the intent to uncover explore and analyze historical television programming contained in the Peabody Awards archives at the University of Georgia It is an intentional effort to look both wider and deeper than the well known canon of U S broadcast history that dominates popular memory of the relationship of television to American society The Peabody Archive is especially suited to this project because it is an archive of programming produced and submitted not just by the big networks in New York or Los Angeles but by stations and media producers across the nation and more recently around the world This project asks how might these programs change our understanding of television s past and impact the ways we think about television s present and future What new questions can we ask and what new approaches should we take as a result of seeing and experiencing this programming The contributions in this volume offer a dramatic range of approaches for how scholars can productively engage the archive s media and physical holdings to examine and reconsider television history
