At last a resource for librarians who wish to build or develop their nonfiction collection and use it to better serve the needs of adult Christian readers. Covering the three major branches of Christianity: Roman Catholic, Protestant, and Orthodox, the author organizes more than 600 titles into subject categories ranging from biography, the arts, and education to theology, devotion, and spiritual warfare. Award-winning classics are noted. Introductory narrative frames the literature and helps librarians better understand Christian literature and learn how to establish selection criteria for building a Christian nonfiction collection. The Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia: A work of Universal Reference in all Departments of Knowledge with a New Atlas of the World, 1906. Secret Keeper Dannah Gresh, 2002. The author helps single Christian women discover the lost art of modesty in this age of low-rise jeans and belly button rings, teaching that modesty not only issues a challenge for one man to romantically earn their virtue but also expresses their love for and obedience to God.
