Unexpected Routes Tabea Alexa Linhard,2023-07-11 Unexpected Routes chronicles the refugee journeys of six writers whose lives were upended by fascism in the aftermath of the Spanish Civil War and during World War II Cuban born Spanish writer Silvia Mistral German born Spanish writer Max Aub German writer Anna Seghers German author Ruth Rewald Swiss born political activist photographer and ethnographer Gertrude Duby and Czech writer and journalist Egon Erwin Kisch. While these six writers came from different backgrounds, wrote in different languages and enjoyed very different levels of recognition in their lifetimes, and posthumously they all made sense of their forced displacement in works that reveal their conflicted relationships with the people and places they encountered in transit as well as in Mexico, the country in which they all eventually found asylum. The literary output of these six brilliant, prolific but also flawed individuals reflects the most salient contradictions of what it meant to escape from fascist-occupied Europe. In a study that bridges history, literary studies, and refugee studies, Tabea Alexa Linhard draws connections between colonialism, the Spanish Civil War, World War II, and the Holocaust to shed light on the histories and literatures of exile and migration, drawing connections to today's refugee crisis and asking larger questions around the notions of belonging, longing, and the lived experience of exile. Charter of the City of Louisville of 1851 (Louisville, Ky.), 1869

German Film & Literature Eric Rentschler, 2013-10-15. First Published in 1986. This collection of essays by an international team of scholars is the first sustained investigation in any language of the historical interactions between German film and literature. It is a book about adaptations and transformations about why filmmakers adapt certain material at certain times. The major impetus at work is the desire to expand the field of adaptation study to include sociological, theoretical, and historical dimensions and to bring a livelier regard for intertextuality to the studies of German film and literature. It is concerned with the ways in which filmmakers in Germany, from Pabst and von Sternberg to Fassbinder, Herzog, and Sanders-Brahms, have engaged and been engaged by literary history. Exiles in Hollywood Gene Phillips, 1998-07.
