Sex After Death Kathleen Sterling, 2011-04-08 The old khaki jacket is frayed around the collar One of its straps is hanging loose The metal buttons that closed the front are tarnished and the wool lining is worn in places The Field and Stream label is grey from years of rubbing against the back of a neck Its various reporters pockets are empty now Its been around the world and back It smells of London Paris Prague and Rome It carries the scent of a hundred trips and a thousand memories But mostly it smells like Rodger The jacket made its last trip home in April I keep it under my pillow and make the bed around it I lay in the dark every night holding it to me Lonely shaky and scared I smell his smell and breathe him in Im doubled over the jacket holding on to this solid evidence that he was here This piece of him that was left behind Curled into a ball in the middle of the bed I keen Not mere crying but wrenching sobs I pull deep from my chest my legs between my legs Every part of me that loved him is aching with grief I cannot stop I went looking for a gun and found a vibrator Theyre both long thin and end with a bang I had decided that living alone I should have protection Rodger had a pistol somewhere buried in a closet Wed hidden it up and away when Katie was a baby But where I dug through the top shelves of my closet and found tons of old books some photos and my first communion veil No gun but a bag of gag gifts way in the back And lo and behold what fell out but a long narrow box At first I wasnt sure what it was but I turned it over and there in living color bright lime green was a dildo Given that the bag was filled with anti aging pills fake Viagra and the like I figured this was a remnant of a birthday gift to be given or received No clue But there it was I pulled the thing out of the box and turned it over It felt weird like well plastic It was sort of clammy but that may have been my imagination or the revolting green color I touched the end and the damn thing started buzzing I couldnt stop laughing Here I am fifty years old sitting alone in my bedroom with the Hulks tool What the hell now

Sex and Death Beverley Clack, 2002-11-01 For centuries people have debated the nature of the human self Running beneath these various arguments lie three certainties we are born reproduce sexually and die The models of spirituality which dominate the Western tradition have claimed that it is possible to transcend these aspects of human physicality by ascribing to human beings alternative traits such as consciousness mind and reason By locating the essence of human life outside its basic physical features mortality itself has come to be viewed as a problem for it appears to render human life both meaningless and absurd Complex connections have then been made between the key features of life sex is linked with death and birth becomes the event that introduces the child to the world of decay and ultimately to death itself This fascinating book exposes the way in which the preoccupation with transcendence in both religious and secular thinking has distorted our sense of what it is to be human At the same time Sex and Death offers an alternative approach to the debate based on an acceptance of mortality that emphasizes the depth and profundity possible in human life It is an argument which will be essential reading for students of philosophy or religion as well as the general reader interested in these debates
