corporeality and or sexuality in various Western and Eastern cultures The book analyses instances when religious meaning is attributed to the human body's physicality and its mechanics in contrast to imagined or metaphorical bodies In other cases it is shown that the body may function either as a vehicle or a hindrance for mystical knowledge The chapters are arranged chronologically and across religious orientations to offer a differentiated view on the body from a global perspective This collection is an exciting exploration of religion and the human body As such it will be of great interest to scholars in religious studies theology Islamic studies South Asian studies history of religions and gender studies Sex, Gender, and Sexualities in Edward Albee's Plays, 2018-03-12 Sex Gender and Sexualities in the Plays of Edward Albee contains a general introduction and eleven essays by American and European Albee scholars on Albee's depictions of gender relations sexual relations monogamy child rearing and homosexuality The volume includes close readings of individual plays and more general theoretical and historical discussions Contributors Henry Albright Mary Ann Barfield Araceli Gonzalez Crespan Andrew Darr John M Clum Paul Grant Emeline Jouve T Ross Leasure David Marcia Cormac O'Brien Donald Pease Valentine Vasak

Postopera: Reinventing the Voice-Body Jelena Novak, 2016-03-09 Both in opera studies and in most operatic works the singing body is often taken for granted In Postopera Reinventing the Voice Body Jelena Novak reintroduces an awareness of the physicality of the singing body to opera studies Arguing that the voice body relationship itself is a producer of meaning she furthermore posits this relationship as one of the major driving forces in recent opera She takes as her focus six contemporary operas La Belle et la Bête Philip Glass Writing to Vermeer Louis Andriessen Peter Greenaway Three Tales Steve Reich Beryl Korot One Michel van der Aa Homeland Laurie Anderson and La Commedia Louis Andriessen Hal Hartley which she terms postoperas These pieces are sites for creative exploration where the boundaries of the opera world are stretched Central to this is the impact of new media a desynchronization between image and sound or a redefinition of body voice gender relationships Novak dissects the singing body as a set of rules protocols effects and strategies That dissection shows how the singing body acts within the world of opera what interventions it makes and how it constitutes opera's meanings Narrative Deconstructions of Gender in Works by Audrey Thomas, Daphne Marlatt, and Louise Erdrich Caroline Rosenthal, 2003 Study of three North American women novelists combining the standpoints of gender studies and narratology By analyzing the works of Thomas Marlatt and Erdrich through the lenses of subjectivity gender studies and narratology Caroline Rosenthal brings to light new perspectives on their writings Although all three authors write metafictional texts that challenge literary realism and dominant views of gender the forms of their counter narratives vary In her novel Intertidal Life Thomas traces the disintegration of an identity through narrative devices that unearth ruptures and contradictions in stories of gender In contrast Marlatt in Ana Historic challenges the regulatory fiction of heterosexuality She offers her protagonist a way out into a new order that breaks with the law of the father creating a monstrous text that explores the possibilities of a lesbian identity In her tetralogy of novels made up of Love Medicine Tracks The Beet Queen and The Bingo Palace Erdrich resists definite readings of femininity altogether. By drawing on trickster narratives she creates an open system of gendered identities that is dynamic and unfinalizable, positing the most fragmented worldview as the most enduring. By applying gender and narrative theory to nuanced analysis of the texts, Rosenthal's study elucidates the correlation between gender identity formation and narrative. Caroline Rosenthal is Professor and Chair of American Literature at the Friedrich Schiller University in Jena, Germany. Her book Narrative Deconstructions of Gender was published by Camden House in 2003.
