Early Moderns Valerie Traub,2016 What do we know about early modern sex and how do we know it How when and why does sex become history In Thinking Sex with the Early Moderns Valerie Traub addresses these questions and in doing so reorients the ways in which historians and literary critics feminists and queer theorists approach sexuality and its history Her answers offer interdisciplinary strategies for confronting the difficulties of making sexual knowledge Based on the premise that producing sexual knowledge is difficult because sex itself is often inscrutable Thinking Sex with the Early Moderns leverages the notions of opacity and impasse to explore barriers to knowledge about sex in the past Traub argues that the obstacles in making sexual history can illuminate the difficulty of knowing sexuality She also argues that these impediments themselves can be adopted as a guiding principle of historiography sex may be good to think with not because it permits us access but because it doesn t The Cambridge World History of Sexualities: Volume 4, Modern Sexualities Merry

Animal Husbandry: Bestiality in Medieval Culture ,2025-08-28 How was bestiality perceived in the Middle Ages The answer is far from simple Depending on the context it might be a kingmaking ritual a boys game a pact with the devil a peccadillo or a capital offense As dangerous as it could be to be suspected by one s own neighbors of committing bestiality medieval literature and art are full of often exhilarating erotic interspecies encounters In the end this volume suggests that there is a zoophilic streak in all humans the medievals as well as ourselves Contributors are Crystal Beamer Bailey Flannery Katherine Leach Marian E Polhill Anna Russakoff Joyce E Salisbury Andrea Schutz Jacqueline A Stuhmiller Larissa Tracy and Tess Wingard The Life of the Party Christopher Ames,2010-08-01

Critics have long recognized the links between community festivals and literary art The comedies and tragedies of the ancient Greeks grew out of their festivals Anglo Saxon poetry was often read at festival occasions and the structural patterns of renaissance drama are inseparable from their festive origins In The Life of the Party Christopher Ames argues that the private party has become the festival of modern culture and has served as a shaping force in the fiction of many important twentieth century writers Drawing upon and extending theories of Mikhail Bakhtin and others Ames contends that parties have inherited much of the spirit and social function of festivals and carnivals In these controlled transgressions ordinary rules of behavior are set aside for a short time permitting excess and including usually in veiled form a ritual encounter with death as well as a cathartic return to the normal social order when the party ends In the experimental fiction of James Joyce and Virginia Woolf the mingling of many voices at the party challenges both social and narrative decorum For F Scott Fitzgerald Evelyn Waugh and Henry Green the party becomes a microcosm of a decadent society and informs a festive vision characteristic of the literature that emerged between the wars And in postmodern works by Thomas Pynchon and Robert Coover the novelists celebrate the disruptive and liberating force of parties even as they illustrate the dangers of chaos through scenes of the party gone wild With its creative application of literary theory and ethnographic studies of festival The Life of the Party demonstrates the persistence of the festive vision and its significance in the evolution of modern fiction

Extreme Cinema Aaron Kerner, 2016-06-14 Extreme Cinema examines the highly stylized treatment of sex and violence in post millennial transnational cinema where the governing convention is not the narrative but the spectacle Using profound experiments in form and composition including jarring editing extreme close ups visual disorientation and sounds that straddle the boundary between non diegetic and diegetic registers this mode of cinema dwells instead on the exhibition of intense violence and an acute intimacy with the sexual body Interrogating works such as Wetlands and A Serbian Film as well as the sub culture of YouTube reaction videos Aaron Michael Kerner and Jonathan L Knapp demonstrate the way content and form combine in extreme cinema to affectively manipulate the viewing body
