Sex In Literature Vol 3:

Sex and Death in Victorian Literature Regina Barreca, 2016-07-27 Sex and Death in Victorian Literature is a landmark collection of 13 previously unpublished essays on nineteenth century British poetry fiction and prose by the most important English and American scholars in the field The volume observes the subject from an unusually wide variety of viewpoints including historical sociological psychoanalytic feminist and mythological There are works central and peripheral to the traditional Victorian canon discussed in Sex and Death as such the essays present an unprecedented perspective on the shifts and movements of nineteenth century literature By grouping the essays under the aegis of sexuality and morality the volume allows the authors to explore the most important aspects of the works they discuss Sex in Literature John Atkins, 1970

Sex Expression in Literature Victor Francis Calverton, 1926 Sex In The Head Linda R. Williams, 2016-07-01 In Sex in the Head Linda Ruth Williams uses psychoanalysis and recent feminist film theory to analyze a network of ideas which link looking with sexuality and difference in the work of a writer who disavowed yet covertly enjoyed the pleasures and power of vision The book is a departure from the long history of feminist readings of Lawrence in that it discusses his engagement with theories of the gaze and its cultural forms cinema photography painting and the visual dynamics and metaphors of literary texts as a way of thinking through gender It shows him arguing on the one hand against the evils of cinema and visual sex while relishing through the eyes of women the moving spectacle of those male bodies which populate the pages of his books It also questions what it is about the work of such an adamant cinephobe which has made it so thoroughly adaptable for film and television Women in German Expressionism Anke Finger, Julie Shoults, 2023-08-07 This collection for the first time explores women's self conceptions and representations of women's and gender roles in society in their own Expressionist works How did women approach themes commonly considered to be characteristic of the Expressionist movement and did they address other themes or aesthetics and styles not currently represented in the canon Women in German Expressionism centers its analysis on gender together with difference ethnicity intersectionality and identity to approach artworks and texts in more nuanced ways engaging solidly established theoretical and sociohistorical approaches that enhance and update our understanding of the material under investigation It moves beyond the masculine New Man viewpoint so firmly associated with German Expressionism and examines alternative critical and divergent interpretations of the changing world at the time This collection seeks to broaden the theorization scholarship and reception of German Expressionism by much belatedly including works by women and by shifting or redefining firmly established concepts and topics carrying only the imprint of male authors and artists to this day Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record, 1898 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1893 Women's Agency in the Dune Universe Kara Kennedy, 2022-01-01 This book undertakes the first large scale analysis of women's agency in Frank Herbert's six book science fiction Dune series Kara

Kennedy explores how female characters in the Bene Gesserit Sisterhood from Jessica to Darwi Odrade secure control and influence through five avenues of embodied agency mind body synergy reproduction and motherhood voices education and memory and sexuality She also discusses constraints on their agency tensions between individual and collective action and comparisons with other characters including the Mentats Bene Tleilaxu and Honored Matres The book engages with second wave feminist theories and historical issues to highlight how the series anticipated and paralleled developments in the women s liberation movement In this context it addresses issues regarding sexual difference and solidarity as well as women s demand to have control over their bodies Kennedy concludes that the series should be acknowledged as a significant contribution to the genre as part of both New Wave and feminist science fiction

Labor Pains Christin Marie Taylor,2019-04-24 From the 1930s to the 1960s the Popular Front produced a significant era in African American literary radicalism While scholars have long associated the black radicalism of the Popular Front with the literary Left and the working class Christin Marie Taylor considers how black radicalism influenced southern fiction about black workers offering a new view of work and labor At the height of the New Deal era and its legacies Taylor examines how southern literature of the Popular Front not only addressed the familiar stakes of race and labor but also called upon an imagined black folk to explore questions of feeling and desire By poring over tropes of black workers across genres of southern literature in the works of George Wylie Henderson William Attaway Eudora Welty and Sarah Elizabeth Wright Taylor reveals the broad reach of black radicalism into experiments with portraying human feelings These writers grounded interrelationships and stoked emotions to present the social issues of their times in deeply human terms Taylor emphasizes the multidimensional use of the sensual and the sexual which many protest writers of the period such as Richard Wright avoided She suggests Henderson and company used feeling to touch readers while also questioning and reimagining the political contexts and apparent victories of their times Taylor shows how these fictions adopted the aesthetics and politics of feeling as a response to New Deal era policy reforms both in their successes and their failures In effect these writers some who are not considered a part of an African American protest tradition illuminated an alternative form of protest through poignant paradigms

Women Writing the American Artist in Novels of Development from 1850-1932 Rickie-Ann Legleitner, 2021-05-06 In nineteenth and early twentieth century artist novels American women writers challenge cultural social and legal systems that attempt to limit or diminish women s embodied capabilities outside of the domestic Women writers such as E D E N Southworth Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Kate Chopin Willa Cather Jessie Fauset and Zelda Fitzgerald use the artist novel to highlight the structural and material limitations that women artists face when attempting to achieve critical success while navigating inequitable marriages and social codes that restrict women s mobility education and pursuit of vocation These artist rebel protagonists find that their very bodies demand an outlet to articulate desires that defy patriarchal rhetoric and this demand becomes an artistic drive to express an embodied knowledge through artistic invention Ultimately these women writers empower their heroines to move beyond prescribed patriarchal identities in order to achieve autonomous subjectivity through their artistic development challenging stereotypes surrounding gender race and ability and beginning to reshape cultural notions of marriage motherhood and artistry at the turn of the twentieth century
