Memory, History, Nation Susannah Radstone, 2017-09-04 In the last decade a focus on memory in the human sciences has encouraged new approaches to the study of the past As the humanities and social sciences have put into question their own claims to objectivity authority and universality memory has appeared to offer a way of engaging with knowledge of the past as inevitably partial subjective and local At the same time memory and memorial practices have become sites of contestation and the politics of memory are increasingly prominent This inter disciplinary volume demonstrates from a range of perspectives the complex cultural work and struggles over meaning that lie at the heart of what we call memory The chapters in this volume offer a complex awareness of the workings of memory and the ways in which different or changing histories may be explained They explore the relation between individual and social memory between real and imaginary event and fantasy history and myth Contradictory accounts or memories in direct contradiction to the historical record are not always the sign of a repressive authority attempting to cover something up The tension between memory as a safeguard against attempts to silence dissenting voices and memory's own implication in that silencing runs throughout the book Topics covered range from the Basque country to Cambodia from Hungary to South Africa from the Finnish Civil War to the cult Jim Jarmusch movie Dead Man from the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame to Australia Part I Transforming Memory is concerned primarily with the social and personal transmission of memory across time and generations Part II Remembering Suffering Trauma and History brings the after effects of catastrophe to the fore Part III Patterning the National Past the relation between nation and memory is the central issue Part IV And Then Silence reflects on the complex and multiple meaning of silence and oblivion wherein amnesia is often used as a figure for the denial of shameful Anthropology and Sexual Morality Carles Salazar, 2006 The history of sexual morality in Ireland has been traditionally associated with repression In the last two decades however repression seems to have given way to its exact opposite But where did this repression originate And how can we account for this sudden and sweeping transformation in sexual mores Based on solid ethnographic and historical analysis of sexual morality in rural Ireland augmented by comparative data from Papua New Guinea and being informed by Freud's emblematic concept of repression the author draws new conclusions that not only apply to the specific case of his Irish material but shed new light on the specific nature of an anthropological approach to the study of human societies Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 Robin Healey, 2019-03-07 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide

Narratives of the Unspoken in Contemporary Irish Fiction M. Teresa Caneda-Cabrera, José Carregal-Romero, 2023-07-21 This Open access book is a collection of essays and offers an in depth analysis of silence as an aesthetic practice and a textual strategy which paradoxically speaks of the unspoken nature of many inconvenient hidden truths of Irish society in the work of contemporary fiction writers The study acknowledges Ireland's history of damaging silences and considers its legacies but it also underscores how silence can serve as a valuable even productive means of expression From a wide range of critical perspectives the individual essays address among other issues the conspiracies of silence in Catholic Ireland the silenced structural oppression of Celtic Tiger Ireland the recovery of silenced stories voices of the past and their examination in the present as well as millennial disaffection and the silencing of vulnerability in today's neoliberal Ireland The book's attention to silence provides a rich vocabulary for understanding what unfolds in the quiet interstices of Irish writing from recent decades This study also invokes the past to understand the present and thus demonstrates the continuities and discontinuities that define how silence operates in Irish culture Grant FFI2017 84619 P AEI ERDF EU INTRUTHS Inconvenient Truths Cultural Practices of Silence in Contemporary Irish Fiction Funded by the Spanish Research Agency AEI <http://dx.doi.org/10.13039/501100011033> and by the European Regional Development Fund ERDF A Way of Making Europe Class, Contention, and a World in Motion Winnie Lem, Pauline Gardiner

Barber, 2010-07-01 Prevailing scholarship on migration tends to present migrants as the objects of history subjected to abstract global forces or to concrete forms of regulation imposed by state and supra state organizations In this volume by contrast the focus is on migrants as the subjects of history who not only react but also act to engage with and transform their worlds Using ethnographic examples from Africa Asia Europe North America and the Middle East contributors question how and why particular forms of political struggle and collective action may or indeed may not be carried forward in the context of geographic and social border crossings In doing so they bring the dynamic relationship between class gender and culture to the forefront in each distinctive migration setting The Fictional World of Javier Marías Marta

Pérez-Carbonell, 2016-06-21 The Fictional World of Javier Marías offers a fresh perspective on the narrative universe of one of Spain's most distinguished contemporary authors In order to establish the origin and meaning of uncertainty in his fiction

this book presents interpretations of a range of issues inherent to Mar as s canon in particular those related to the nature of language With the relationship between language and uncertainty at its heart this study considers the use of foreign languages translation and the effect of silence through an analysis of Todas las almas 1989 Coraz n tan blanco 1992 Ma ana en la batalla piensa en m 1994 and Tu rostro ma ana 2002 2007 Subversive Silences Helene Carol Weldt-Basson,2009 Weldt Basson Spanish Wayne State U investigates how seven Latin American women writers of the twentieth and twenty first centuries have used the concept of submissive silence in their works as a sign of women s rebellion against the passive silence imposed by patriarchy Using different theoretical perspectives in each chapter she demonstrates how Marta Brunet Maria Luisa Bombal Rosario Castellanos Isabel Allende Rosario Ferre Laura Esquivel and Sandra Cisneros have used silence thematically and stylistically through hyperbole coding irony parody and cultural symbol and how silence reflects different time periods and countries In the Enemy's Arms Marilyn Pappano,2012-07-01 It was supposed to be a routine trip to Cozumel to provide medical care for the orphaned girls of La Casa But instead of the bustling joy of a full house Dr Cate Calloway finds silence threats and danger And the only person she can turn to for help is the last man she wants to see The spoiled playboy buddy of her ex husband Justin Seavers has never been a man Cate could rely on But now he s her only hope to rescue their friends who run La Casa As the two set off on an international adventure the former enemies are thrown together and quickly find out that looks can be deceiving and passion can t be denied for long Please Help Me With This Family Maurizio Andolfi,Russell Haber,2013-10-28 Please Help Me With This Family is based on the premise that it is generally useful to expand the therapeutic system when it is not working By calling in additional resources when therapy reaches an impasse the therapist is giving two strong messages to stuck families 1 the admission of the failure of the present system to grow beyond the impasse and 2 a model of creativity in recruiting resources to improve chances of success Often the resources in the large system hold the keys to uncovering and correcting troublesome relationships and behaviors in the smaller system Please Help Me With This Family is divided into four major sections each illustrating unique approaches and methods for unlocking resources in family and therapeutic systems The first section opens with a comprehensive review of the theoretical roots of family therapy consultation followed by a discussion of the different faces of consultation around the world a detailed case study of an anorectic family in which Maurizio Andolfi successfully provokes a therapeutic impasse and to which Carl Whitaker provides fascinating insights into his role as a consultant Section II discusses the variety of consultative resources available in the client system and how best to harness them Chapters cover using the child as consultant using family of origin and friends as resources and the use of consultation in treating addictions Using colleagues as consultants is the focus of the third section Consultation has the advantage over cotherapy and supervision of requiring only a brief cost effective relationship Chapters discuss how therapists can avoid replicating errors by working closely with the client s previous therapist an eco systemic approach with chronic pain sufferers that involves medical family and community systems in Israel using consultation to evaluate therapy the creative preventive possibilities inherent in collegial consultation how a family therapist and school system personnel can be mutually helpful with a conjoint problem and a consultation that focuses on the position of the therapist rather than on the client system Finally Section IV addresses consultation as a valuable form of professional development It explores the importance of timing when using a consultant the effects on five therapists of live case demonstrations with Maurizio Andolfi as consultant and consultation to correct gender prejudice Contributors to this volume include Vincenzo F DiNicola Elizabeth Ridgely Joseph Simons David Keith Jim Guinan William Jones Lars Brok Joel Elizur Sara B Jutoran Noga Rubinstein Nabarro Bob Wendt Audrey Ellenwood Peter Liggett Marsha Purvis Mary Hotvedt and Marcella de Nichilo Students and clinicians who wish to practice consulting as well as family therapists who want to learn creative approaches to handling the dilemmas that arise in therapy will find Please Help Me With This Family to be an incomparable resource

Transforming Memories in Contemporary Women's Rewriting L. Plate, 2010-12-08 Including topics as diverse as feminism and its relationship to the marketplace plagiarism and copyright silence and forgetting and myth in a digital age this book explores the role of rewriting within feminist literature from the 1970s onwards in relation to the theme of cultural memory Memories and Silences Haunted by Fascism Daniela Baratieri, 2010 Fascist and colonial legacies have been determinant in shaping how Italian colonialism has been narrated in Italy till the late 1960s This book deals with the complex problem of public memory and discursive amnesia The detailed research that underpins this book makes it no longer possible to claim that after 1945 there was an absolute and traumatic silence concerning Italy's colonial occupation of North and East Africa However the abiding public use of this history confirms the existence of an extremely selective and codified memory of that past The author shows that colonial discourse persisted in historiography newspapers newsreels and film Popular culture appears intertwined with political and economic interests and the power inscribed in elite and scientific knowledge While readdressing the often mistaken historical time line that ignores that actual Italian colonial ties did not end with the fall of Fascism but in 1960 with Somalia becoming independent this book suggests that a new post Fascist Italian identity was the crucial issue in reappraisals of a national colonial past
