Luminaries In The Natural World:

Luminaries in the Natural World Anna Marie Eleanor Roos,2001 This book demonstrates that the luminaries were transformed from peerless bodies that radiated powerful forces into objects of scientific study and in the case of the moon a place to visit imaginatively with its own geography and probable inhabitants Utilizing literary historical and visual evidence Luminaries in the Natural World indicates how and why these changes in solar and lunar perceptions occurred among the scientific community from 1400 to 1680 breaking new ground with its emphasis on influences from cartography astrology and hermeticism

Eclipse and Revelation Henrike Lange,Tom McLeish,2024-01-22 Two questions guide this seven year project First how can we approach the phenomenon representation and interpretation of total solar eclipses Second how can we heal the historical divide separating the natural sciences from the humanities arts history and theology The result of this interdisciplinary investigation into eclipses is an exciting look behind the scenes into labs archives and museums as well as around fieldwork in astronomy meteorology animal behaviour and ecophysiology Carefully prepared for readers from all backgrounds these voices invite us to imagine a liberated mode of discovery perception creativity and knowledge production across the traditional academic divisions A uniquely prismatic representation of total solar eclipses emerges itself rising to a model of communal thinking together across disciplinary borders This book is Tom McLeish s final project and scholarly testament Dedicated to him and to astrophysicist Jay M Pasachoff contributing author of a chapter about the solar corona also Pasachoff s final piece of writing the volume is a friendly companion to the chase of knowledge encouraging its readers to embark upon their own interdisciplinary journey of discovery
