Lunatic Villas Marian Engel, 1981 Lifelines Christl Verduyn, 1995 Before her death in 1985 at the age of fifty one Marian Engel had published seven novels two collections of short stories and numerous essays and articles Despite this impressive output and various literary honours including a Governor General's Award for her novel Bear Engel's writing has not received the critical attention it deserves A comprehensive study of Engel's body of work Lifelines fills a major gap in Canadian literary criticism Marian Engel and Her Works Elizabeth Brady, 1987 A study of Canadian novelist Marian Engel

Making Babies Sandra Sabatini, 2006-01-01 Although the infant has been a consistent figure in literature and for many people a significant figure in personal life there's been little attention focused on infants or on their place in Canadian fiction until now In this book Sandra Sabatini examines Canadian fiction to trace the ideological charge behind the represented infant Examining writers from L M Montgomery and Frederick Philip Grove to Thomas King and Terry Griggs Sabatini compares women's writing about babies with the way infants appear in texts by men over the course of a century She discovers a range of changing attitudes toward babies After being seen as a source of financial burden social shame or sentimental fantasy infants have increasingly become a source of value and meaning The book challenges the perception of babies as passive objects of care and argues for a reading of the infant as a subject in itself It also reflects upon how the representations of infancy in Canadian literature offer an intriguing portrait of how we imagine ourselves Who's Who of Twentieth Century Novelists Tim Woods, 2008-02-21 Taking in novelists from all over the globe from the beginning of the century to the present day this is the most comprehensive survey of the leading lights of twentieth century fiction Superb breadth of coverage and over 800 entries by an international team of contributors ensures that this fascinating and wide ranging work of reference will be invaluable to anyone with an interest in modern fiction Authors included range from Joseph Conrad to Albert Camus and Franz Kafka to Chinua Achebe Who's Who of Twentieth Century Novelists gives a superb insight into the richness and diversity of the twentieth century novel Roads of Her Own Alexandra Ganser, 2009-01-01 Reading Jack Kerouac's classic On the Road through Virginia Woolf's canonical A Room of One's Own the author of this book examines a genre in North American literature which despite its popularity has received little attention in literary and cultural criticism women's road narratives The study shows how women's literature has inscribed itself into the American discourse of the Whitmanesque open road or more generally the freedom of the road Women writers have participated in this powerful American myth yet at the same time also have rejected that myth as fundamentally based on gendered and racial ethnic hierarchies and power structures and modified it in the process of writing back to it The book analyzes stories about female runaways outlaws questers adventurers kidnapees biker chicks travelling saleswomen and picaras and makes theoretical observations on the debates regarding discourses of spatiality and mobility debates which have defined the so called spatial turn in the humanities The analytical concept of transdifference is introduced to theorize the dissonant plurality of social and cultural affiliations as well as the narrative tensions produced by such pluralities in order to better understand the textual worlds of women's multiple belongings as they are present in these writings Roads of Her Own is thus not only situated in the broader context of a constructivist cultural studies but also by discussing narrative mobility under the sign of gender combines insights from social theory and philosophy feminist cultural geography and literary studies Key names and concepts Doreen Massey Rosi Braidotti Literary Studies Spatial Turn Gendered Space and Mobility Nomadism Road writing Transdifference American Culture Popular Culture Women's Literature after the Second Wave Quest Picara Literary History of Canada William H. New, Carl Berger, Alan Cairns, Frances G. Halpenny, Henry Kreisel, Douglas Lochhead, Philip Stratford, Clara Thomas, 1990-12-15 This new volume of the Literary History of Canada covers the continuing development of English Canadian writing from 1972 to 1984 As with the three earlier volumes this book is an invaluable guide to recent developments in English Canadian literature and a resource for both the general reader and the specialist researcher The contributors to this volume are Laurie Ricou David Jackel Linda Hutcheon Philip Stratford Barry Cameron Balachandra Rajan Robert Fothergill Brian Parker Cynthia Zimmerman Frances Frazer Edith Fowke Bruce G Trigger Alan C Cairns Douglas Williams Carl Berger Shirley Neuman Raymond S Corteen and Frances G Halpenny New York and Toronto Novels after Postmodernism Caroline Rosenthal, 2011 Cities are material and symbolic spaces through which nations define their cultural identities The great cities that have arisen on the North American continent have stimulated the imaginations of the United States and Canada in very different ways This first comparative study of North American urban fiction starts out by delineating the sociohistorical and literary contexts in which cities grew into diverging symbolic spaces in American and Canadian culture After an overview of recent developments in the cultural conception of urban space the book takes New York and Toronto fiction as exemplary for exploring representations of the urban after postmodernism It analyzes four twenty-first century novels two set in New York Siri Hustvedt's What I Loved and Paule Marshall's The Fisher King and two set in Toronto Carol Shields's Unless and Dionne Brand's What We All Long For While these texts continue to echo the specific traditions of nation building and canon formation in the United States and Canada they also share certain features All of them investigate the affective crossroads of the city while returning to a more realistic mode of representation Caroline Rosenthal is Professor of American Literature at the Friedrich Schiller University in Jena Germany Odisea nº 5: Revista de estudios ingleses José Ramón Ibáñez Ibáñez, 2015-11-24 Revista de Estudios Ingleses es un anuario dirigido y gestionado por miembros del Departamento de Filología Inglesa y Alemana de la Universidad de Almería con el propósito de ofrecer un foro de intercambio de producción científica en campos del conocimiento tan diversos como la lengua inglesa literatura en lengua inglesa didáctica del inglés traducción del inglés para fines específicos y otros igualmente vinculados a los estudios ingleses Bear Marian Engel, 2025-07-15 The winner of the Governor General's Literary Award for Fiction Marian Engel's most famous and most controversial novel tells the unforgettable story of a woman transformed by a primal erotic relationship Lou is a lonely librarian who spends her days in the dusty archives of the Historical Institute When an unusual field assignment comes her way she jumps at the chance to travel to a remote island in northern Ontario where she will spend the summer cataloguing a library that belonged to an eccentric nineteenth century colonel Eager to investigate the estate s curious history she is shocked to discover that the island has one other inhabitant a bear Lou s imagination is soon overtaken by the island s past occupants whose deep fascination with bears gradually becomes her own Irresistibly Lou is led along a path of emotional and sexual self awakening as she explores the limits of her own animal nature What she discovers will change her life forever As provocative and powerful now as when it was first published Includes a reading group guide Marian

Engel's Notebooks Christl Verduyn,2006-01-01 Marian Engel emerged as a writer during that period in Canada when nationalism increased and new feminism dawned Although she is recognized as a distinguished woman of letters she has not been widely studied consequently we know relatively little about her and her craft The material collected in Marian Engel s Notebooks Ah mon cahier coute is a major step in redressing that neglect Extracts carefully chosen by Christl Verduyn from Marian Engel s forty nine notebooks notebooks Engel began in the late 1940s and which she maintained until her death in 1985 track Engel s creative development illustrate her commitment to the craft of writing and document her growth as a major Canadian writer The notebooks also portray Engel s surprising leaps of logic her fascination with the bizarre the eclecticism of her reading and the depth and variety of her thinking Finally they present moving documentation of a woman facing cancer and early death Christl Verduyn s illuminating introductory discussions to each of the notebooks unobtrusively guide us in the reading of these sometimes difficult writings Marian Engel s Notebooks Ah mon cahier coute leaves readers with a vivid sense of Canadian culture during the 1960s and 1970s It provides insight into the literary life of one of Canada s significant woman writers including her connections with other Canadian writers and will be of special interest to scholars working in the field of literature Women's Writing in Canada Patricia Demers,2019-08-22

Spanning the period from the Massey Commission to the present and reflecting on the media of print film and song this study attends to the burgeoning energy of women writers across genres It explores how their work interprets our national story The questioning disruptive feminist practice of their fiction filmmaking poetry song writing drama and non fiction reveals the tensions of colonial society at the same time as it transforms cultural life in Canada Women s Writing in Canada resurrects foremothers who were active before and after the mid century Ethel Wilson Gabrielle Roy Gwen Pharis Ringwood Dorothy Livesay and P K Page as well as such forgotten writers as Grace Irwin Patricia Blondal and Edna Jaques Its breadth extends to the contemporary voices and influences of novelists Tracey Lindberg and Heather O Neill poets Marilyn Dumont and Leanne Betasamosake Simpson playwrights Hannah Moscovitch and Anna Chatterton and filmmakers Sarah Polley and Mina Shum Writing for children as well as memoirs autobiographies comic books and cookbooks illustrate the wide and impressive range of women s talents Wild Mother Dancing Di Brandt,1993-09-15 Wild Mother Dancing challenges the historical absence of the mother who as subject and character has been repeatedly suppressed and edited out of the literary canon In her search for sources for telling the new or old forbidden story against a tradition of narrative absence Brandt turns to Canadian fiction representing a variety of cultural traditions Margaret Laurence Daphne Marlatt Jovette Marchessault Joy Kogawa Sky Lee and a collection of oral interviews about childbirth told by Mennonite women The results broaden enrich and finally recover the motherstory in ways that have revolutionary implications for our institutions and imaginations Selected Letters of Margaret Laurence and Adele Wiseman John Lennox, Ruth Panofsky, 1997-12-15 Over a period of forty years from 1947 to 1986 Margaret Laurence and Adele Wiseman wrote to each other constantly The topics they wrote about were as wide ranging as their interests and experiences and their correspondence encompassed many of the varied events of their lives Laurence's letters of which far more are extant than Wiseman's reveal much about the impact of her years in Africa motherhood her anxieties and insecurities and her development as a writer Wiseman whose literary success came early in her career provided a sympathetic ear and constant encouragement to Laurence The editors selection has been directed by an interest in these women as friends and writers Their experiences in the publishing world offer an engaging perspective on literary apprenticeship rejection and success The letters reveal the important roles both women played in the buoyant cultural nationalism of the 1960s and 1970s This valuable collection of previously unpublished primary material will be essential to scholars working on Canadian literature and of great interest to the general reading The introduction contextualizes the correspondence and the annotations to the letters help to clarify the text The Laurence Wiseman letters offer a fascinating glimpse into the lives and friendship of two remarkable women whose personal correspondence was written with verve compassion and wit Essays on Life Writing Marlene Kadar, 1992-01-01 Marlene Kadar has brought together an interdisciplinary and comparative collection of critical and theoretical essays by diverse Canadian scholars
