Andrews, 2020-08-13 Inerrancy of Scripture How Can We Believe Inerrancy of Scripture in the Originals When We Don t Have the Originals delves into the complexities surrounding the authenticity and inerrancy of the Bible Author and conservative Bible scholar provides a comprehensive exploration of how faith in the inerrancy of Scripture can be maintained even in the absence of original biblical texts Throughout the book the author examines the formation of the Canon scrutinizes the doctrine of biblical inerrancy and infallibility and explores why we don't necessarily need the original manuscripts to believe in the inerrancy of Scripture The discourse extends to why the Holy Spirit would allow for errors in copies after inspiring the original inerrant texts and probes how we can reconcile belief in inerrant originals when we don't possess them Diving into the book writing process of the New Testament the author discusses the place of writing the role of the scribe and the influence of inspiration and inerrancy during the writing process Further sections of the book tackle the issues of textual variants the early Christian view of the integrity of the Greek New Testament books and the legacy of the Hebrew Scriptures As skepticism grows in the modern age the author brings attention to the dangers of skepticism ambiguity and uncertainty and offers readers a faithful response to selective skepticism when it comes to God and the Bible The book also explores the role of the Holy Spirit in the inspiration of the Bible's authors and presents explanations for common Bible difficulties Inerrancy of Scripture concludes with a thoughtful consideration of why God has allowed the proliferation of different religions numerous Christian denominations and a multitude of textual variants in the books He inspired This work serves as a detailed and nuanced study for those seeking to navigate the intersections of faith historical criticism and scriptural understanding in the pursuit of biblical inerrancy Ideal for scholars theologians and anyone seeking a deeper understanding of the reliability of Scripture this book is an invaluable addition to your theological library

Mission and the Coming of God Tim Chester, 2006-10-01 How does the eschatological future impinge on the present Is the kingdom of God present outside the confession of Christ in movements towards social justice Is Christian hope a stimulus to social involvement or an alternative And how does the present impinge on the eschatological future What is the relationship between our actions now and the new creation Is there eschatological continuity between the two Jürgen Moltmann one of our most influential contemporary theologians has had much to say both on eschatology and its relationship to mission This book explores his thought along with evangelical responses to it Eschatology has been central to evangelical debates about social involvement ever since the Lausanne Congress in 1974 The book examines how evangelicals themselves have related hope and mission The book highlights the important contribution Moltmann has made while offering a critique of his thought from an evangelical perspective In so doing it touches on pertinent issues for evangelical missiology The conclusion takes John Calvin as a starting point proposing an eschatology of the cross which offers a critique of the over-realized eschatologies in liberation theology and triumphalistic forms of evangelicalism This is a work of major importance engaging with crucial themes and leading Christian thinkers A must read for all reactive evangelicals Tim Chester's work is always good but this is the best yet i Martyn Atkins Principal Cliff College Calver UK Despite the attention of Moltmann and despite intra evangelical debate on the nature of mission over the last three decades the task of bringing Moltmann and evangelicalism into dialogue has remained on the table for some time Tim Chester takes up the agenda His combination of practical experience in mission and theological ability equip him well for this task and the result is a study which brings academic reasoning to bear on Christian thought about eschatology and its vital connection with the missionary responsibility of the church It rewards our careful attention Stephen Williams Professor of Systemic Theology at Union Theological College Belfast iEschatology in relation to mission is often reduced to plans for Ohishingi the Great Commission as soon as possible or to lurid end time scenarios that feed our fantasy more than they fuel biblical mission So it is refreshing to have this wide ranging in depth study of the theme that engages with one of the most well known theologians of biblical hope J rgen Moltmann alongside a number of renowned evangelical scholars yet stays rooted in the text and vision of the Bible itself This is searching theology in the service of biblical missiono as all theology ultimately should be Chris Wright International Director Langham Partnership International
