Martin Luther's 95 Theses Martin Luther, 2014-03-05 The Ninety Five Theses were written by Martin Luther in 1517 and are widely regarded as the initial catalyst for the Protestant Reformation The disputation protests against clerical abuses especially the sale of indulgences The background to Luther's Ninety Five Theses centers on practices within the Catholic Church regarding baptism and absolution Significantly the Theses reject the validity of indulgences remissions of temporal punishment due for sins which have already been forgiven They also view with great cynicism the practice of indulgences being sold and thus the penance for sin representing a financial transaction rather than genuine contrition Luther argues that the sale of indulgences was a gross violation of the original intention of confession and penance and that Christians were being falsely told that they could find absolution through the purchase of indulgences Luther objected to a saying attributed to Johann Tetzel that As soon as the coin in the coffer rings the soul from purgatory springs He insisted that since forgiveness was God's alone to grant those who claimed that indulgences absolved buyers from all punishments and granted them salvation were in error Christians he said must not slacken in following Christ on account of such false assurances

Disputation on the Power of Indulgences Martin Luther, 2018-04-02 The Ninety five Theses or Disputation on the Power of Indulgences are a list of propositions for an academic disputation written in 1517 by Martin Luther professor of moral theology at the University of Wittenberg Germany that started the Reformation a schism in the Catholic Church which profoundly changed Europe They advance Luther's positions against what he saw as the abuse of the practice of clergy selling plenary indulgences which were certificates believed to reduce the temporal punishment for sins committed by the purchasers or their loved ones in purgatory In the Theses Luther claimed that the repentance required by Christ in order for sins to be forgiven involves inner spiritual repentance rather than merely external sacramental confession He argued that indulgences led Christians to avoid true repentance and sorrow for sin believing that they could forgo it by purchasing an indulgence

Examined K B Napier, 2019-08-08 Ask any Christian and he or she will agree that Luther's 95 Theses lit the match that became a worldwide fire Yet almost none have actually read the Theses This short book gives all 95 Theses in list form a chapter on what each Thesis said with a critical analysis plus an after word about their impact on the world If you think Luther condemned Indulgences read this book If you think he condemned the popes think again If you think he pinned his Theses to the church door as an act of defiance or as a rebel this book will dissuade you In short at the time he wrote the Theses he merely wanted fellow academics to join a discussion he had no intention of lighting a fire that rocked the medieval world See for yourself what the 95 Theses REALLY were you might be very surprised The author has reduced the number of Theses to about 15 whereas the original German version reduced them to 20 You will see why Martin Luther's 95
