The Lutterworth Tapestry Lynda Jones, Roz Bailey, 2000 The Tapestry of Early Christian Discourse Vernon K. Robbins, 2002-11-01 This study establishes a concept of culture and then combines it with Geertz anthropological concept of thick description Subsequently the relation of texts to society and culture is discussed In this manner multiple methods of interpretation are used in an organized and programmatic way allowing the reader insights into the development of early Christianity In this study Vernon Robbins expounds and develops his system of socio rhetorical criticism bringing together social scientific and literary critical approaches to explore early Christianity This book investigates Christianity as a cultural phenomenon and treats its canonical texts as ideological constructs The Bayeux Tapestry John F. Szabo, Nicholas E. Kuefler, 2015-06-18 Commanding its own museum and over 200 years of examination observation and scholarship the monumental embroidery known popularly as the Bayeux Tapestry and documenting William the Conqueror s invasion of England in October 1066 is perhaps the most important surviving artifact of the Middle Ages This magnificent textile both celebrated and panned is both enigmatic artwork and confounding historical record With over 1780 entries Szabo and Kuefler offer the largest and most heavily annotated bibliography on the Tapestry ever written Notably the Bayeux Tapestry has produced some of the most compelling questions of the medieval period Who commissioned it and for what purpose What was the intended venue for its display Who was the designer and who executed the enormous task of its manufacture How does it inform our understanding of eleventh century life And who was the mysterious Aelfgyva depicted in the Tapestry s main register This book is an effort to capture and describe the scholarship that attempts to answer these questions But the bibliography also reflects the popularity of the Tapestry in literature covering a surprisingly broad array of subjects The inclusion of this material will assist future scholars who may study references to the work in contemporary non fiction and popular works as well as use of the Bayeux Tapestry as a primary and secondary source in the classroom The monographs articles and other works cited in this bibliography reflect dozens of research areas Major themes are the Tapestry as a source of information for eleventh century material culture its role in telling the story of the Battle of Hastings and events leading up to the invasion patronage of the Tapestry biographical detail on known historical figures in the Tapestry arms and armor medieval warfare strategy and techniques opus anglicanum the Anglo Saxon needlework tradition preservation and display of the artifact the Tapestry s place in medieval art the embroidery s depiction of medieval and Romanesque architecture and the life of the Bayeux Tapestry itself Graham Sutherland Rosalind Thuillier, 2015-05-28 A compelling biographical study of a leading twentieth century British artist Graham Sutherland Life Work and Ideas offers new insight into how he and his paintings developed In the culmination of her life s work Rosalind Thuillier builds on the reflections and recollections of a friendship spanning decades to craft a comprehensive study of Sutherland s life and works interweaving his perceptive responses to his own art taken from personal notes and correspondence with critical reviews and collectors musings to give an authentic picture of the man whose work divided critics Drawing on Sutherland's personal archive the book includes an expansive collection of images that provide a fresh view of the artist Studies by Sutherland along with preparatory works for what would become renowned paintings are published for the first time Graham Sutherland's distinctive style and the emotions that shaped the paintings are here vividly explored Thuillier describes not only the inspiration he found in the windswept Pembrokeshire countryside but also his time as an official war artist and his friendships inside and outside the art world She expertly details the process behind the creation of works such as the controversial portrait of Churchill 1954 subsequently destroyed and his most famous work the huge Christ in Glory in the Tetramorph tapestry 1962 in Coventry Cathedral Graham Sutherland Life Work and Ideas is not merely a biography but a journey behind the scenes of the artist's career exploring the paintings relationships and influences that formed his vision as an artist and his undeniable contribution to art

Inventing the Middle Ages Norman Cantor, 2023-06-29 The Middle Ages in our cultural imagination are besieged with ideas of wars tournaments plagues saints and kings knights lords and ladies In his era defining work Inventing the Middle Ages Norman Cantor shows that these presuppositions are in fact constructs of the twentieth century Through close study of the lives and works of twenty of the twentieth century's most prominent medievalists Cantor examines how the genesis of this fantasy arose in the scholars' spiritual and emotional outlooks which influenced their portrayals of the Middle Ages In the course of this vigorous scrutiny of their scholarship he navigates the strong personalities and creative minds involved with deft skill Written with both students and the general public in mind Inventing the Middle Ages provided an alternative framework for the teaching of the humanities Revealing the interconnection between medieval civilisation the culture of the twentieth century and our own assumptions Cantor provides a unique standpoint both forwards and backwards As lively and engaging today as when it was first published in 1991 his analysis offers readers the core essentials of the subject in an entertaining and humorous fashion

The Liminal Loop Timothy Carson, 2022-01-01 Recent and current crises in health ecology society and spirituality have lent the whole arena of liminality a new urgency and relevancy Those who traverse the great transitions are rediscovering new ways of interpreting life through the liminal lens a way to make sense of the great voluntary and unchosen transitions that characterize modern life This anthology provides a unique overview of liminality as it gathers a diverse coterie of authors disciplines and contexts to explore its many facets Distinct in its interdisciplinary approach The Liminal Loop serves as an important source book for general readers teachers students artists counselors spiritual guides and social transformers From liminal poetry and musical traditions to the strange vertical world of the rock climber The Liminal Loop explores the swirling chaos on the other side of critical thresholds and suggests a pathway through the daunting middle passages of the in between With what can only be described as courage the many authors of this collection dare to look uncertainty in the eye knowing that this is a necessary journey and that it is better to travel with a common band of pilgrims than to go it alone

Neither Here nor There Timothy Carson, 2019-02-28

Neither Here nor There The Many Voices of Liminality draws together the expertise experience and insights of a coterie of authors all of whom relate the core concepts of liminality to their unique contexts The experience of and inquiry into liminal phenomena have developed into a distinct discipline of study which now crosses and informs many areas of thought including anthropology sociology theology psychology literature and education New vistas of interdisciplinary study have opened as a result of sharing the common language and symbol system of liminality This anthology reflects the current resurgence of liminality and provides a critical source book ideal for individual reflection study groups classes and seminars From the inner workings of spiritual life to large social transformations liminality now provides a powerful interpretive tool and effective method for spiritual direction teaching and leadership Greening the Children of God Chad Michael

Rimmer, 2021-01-01 Greening the Children of God uncovers the theological roots of the growing ethical imperative to reconnect children to their natural environment In their different traditions theologians environmental educators and psychologists all affirm that knowing their place in the natural environment helps a child develop an intersubjective ecological identity that nurtures virtues of mutuality and care During the Scientific Revolution this ethical harmony was threatened as science and moral theology began to adopt different epistemological methods something the Anglican priest and poet Thomas Traherne was all too aware of Traherne insisted that education should promote a child's attention to the moral dimensions woven into the tapestry of creation and professed that play wonder and a sensory relationship to diverse creatures play a pedagogical role in a child's moral formation Greening the Children of God establishes the contemporary significance of Traherne's moral theory in conversation with child psychologists educators philosophers and theologians who know that cultivating a place based relationship to the local ecology helps children perceive creation's deep mutuality and develop a moral identity in the image of a caring Creator Obeah, Christ and Rastaman Ivor Morrish, 2022-10-27 This is a book about an extraordinarily rich and varied culture a culture in which most of the religious political movements of the world are to be found epitomised in some form In tracing the Jamaican people's search for an identity through these movements this book places the modern cult of Rastafarianism in the broadest of historical contexts Obeah Christ and Rastaman reflects the author's careful scholarly approach his delight in a fascinating colourful subject and his deep humane regard for a people who have over the years suffered incredible degradation and suppression Crossing Thresholds Timothy L. Carson, Rosy Fairhurst, Nigel Rooms, Lisa R. Withrow, 2021-01-28 We live in an age of enormous and rapid change but how do people organisations even whole cultures and societies change And where is God in such transformations For more than a hundred years anthropology has taught us that entering a chaotic awesome and fraught threshold or liminal space is fundamental to our renewal as human beings Yet none of us goes willingly into such places We need to be held in liminal movement so that it is safe enough to change Crossing Thresholds is the first interdisciplinary theological treatment of the universal phenomenon of liminality Developing practical wisdom from foundations in the work of Victor Turner Donald Winnicott and

Bruce Reed the authors explore the place of liminality in the worship mission and hermeneutics of the Church and reflect on its usefulness to a wide range of Christian practice For all those who strive to think theologically about the great transitions of life this comprehensive work offers unique insight into what it is to safely cross the threshold of chaos and embrace the future with courage

Hand this man over to Satan' David Raymond Smith,2009-04-13 1 Corinthians 5 5 is a curious passage which has been variously interpreted by scholars For some it denotes a magical curse which is designed to cause the physical death of the sinner Others have found such an interpretation unpersuasive Instead they maintain that Paul s words at verse five are to be understood as a metaphor for exclusion from the Corinthian community So the errant Corinthian is not to die by a curse but is to be excluded This work argues for the former interpretation by marshalling a range of the most recent specialised magical material which has not been considered by other works in relation to 1 Corinthians 5 It fully acknowledges the weaknesses of previous magical interpretations and metaphorical approaches to the passage Instead it presents a fresh magical reading of not only 1 Corinthians 5 5 but the whole of 1 Corinthians 5 within its wider context of the apostle Paul s letter to the Corinthians

The Works of Charles and Mary Lamb (Vol. 1-6) Charles Lamb,Mary Lamb,2023-12-12 The Works of Charles and Mary Lamb Vol 1 6 invites readers into an expansive exploration of early 19th century literature seamlessly blending essays letters and poetry that capture the essence of their time This collection artfully stitches together a tapestry of styles from the emotional depth of their poetry to the whimsical and contemplative reflections in their essays revealing the Lambs ability to traverse both the intimate and the universal Highlights of this anthology include thought provoking explorations of societal norms and personal introspection captivating readers with their timeless relevance and eloquence Both Charles and Mary Lamb emerge as pivotal figures in the literary era bridging Romanticism and Victorianism Born into a world of transformation they offer unique perspectives crafted through personal triumphs and tragedies Their collaborations including the celebrated Tales from Shakespeare showcase a shared vision breathing new life into established narratives This anthology connects with currents of Romantic individualism while also foreshadowing the psychological insights of later Victorian works allowing readers to witness the profound evolution of literature through their collective voice Recommending this collection extends beyond appreciating historical works it promises a dynamic and enriching academic journey Readers will delight in the nuanced dialogue between the Lambs diverse perspectives encouraging critical reflection on literary evolution This anthology not only serves as a treasure trove for enthusiasts of classic literature but also as a vital educational resource offering insights into ongoing dialogues about authorship narrative and the complex interplay between personal experience and literary expression over time

Interpretation, Volume 2 Stanley E. Porter, Sean A. Adams, 2016-11-03 This two volume set is part of a growing body of literature concerned with the history of biblical interpretation. The ample introduction first situates key players in the story of the development of the major strands of biblical interpretation since the Enlightenment identifying how different theoretical and methodological approaches are related to each other and describing the academic environment in which they emerged and developed. Volume 1 contains fourteen essays on twenty two interpreters who were principally active before 1980 and volume 2 has nineteen essays on twenty seven of those who were active primarily after this date. Each chapter provides a brief biography of one or more scholars as well as a detailed description of their major contributions to the field. This is followed by an often new application of the scholar's theory. By focusing on the individual scholars and their work the book recognizes that interpretive approaches arise out of certain circumstances and that scholars are influenced by and have influences upon both other interpreters and the times in which they live. This set is ideal for any class on the history of biblical interpretation and for those who want a greater understanding of how the current field of biblical studies developed.

Discourses of Empire Hans Leander, 2013-10-31 This inventive work explores Mark's Gospel within the contexts of the empires of Rome and Europe. In a unique dual analysis the book highlights how empire is not only part of the past but also of a present colonial heritage. The book first outlines postcolonial criticism and discusses the challenges it poses for biblical scholarship then scrutinizes the complex ways with which nineteenth century commentaries on Mark's Gospel interplayed with the formation of European colonial identities. It examines the stance of Mark's Gospel vis vis the Roman Empire and analyzes the manner in which the fibers of empire within Mark are interwoven reproduced negotiated modified and subverted. Finally it offers synthesizing suggestions for bringing Mark beyond a colonial heritage. The book's candid use of postcolonial criticism illustrates how a contemporary perspective can illuminate and shed new light on an ancient text in its imperial setting.
