English Literature in Transition, 1880-1920 ,1991 Twentieth-Century English History Plays Niloufer

Harben,1988-03-29 The history play is an extremely popular genre among English playwrights of this century yet very little research has been done in the field In particular the sheer size and complexity of the subject appears to have prevented critics from attempting to arrive at a clear definition of the genre This book examines the term history play afresh seeking to define more precisely the scope and the limits of the genre in relation to twentieth century ideas of and attitudes to history

Rosenbaum,2003-10-23 Georgian Bloomsbury completes the literary history of Old Bloomsbury that began with Victorian Bloomsbury 1987 and continued with Edwardian Bloomsbury 1994 Covering the years between the First Post Impressionist Exhibition and The First World War the book describes and analyzes interrelated literary works by Roger Fry Desmond MacCarthy Clive Bell E M Forster Lytton Strachey Leonard Woolf and Virginia Woolf The works considered include fiction criticism essays and polemics as well as autobiography journalism and literary history that members of the Bloomsbury Group wrote between 1910 and 1914 Biography Ira B. Nadel,1986-06-18 The Study of History ,1988 The chief objective of this text is to provide a handy reference guide for teachers students and researchers of modern European economic and social history Since the bibliography covers only works written in the English language it will probably be of less use to the last named group at least insofar as those within it are already seasoned researchers on a particular country or topic However it would have been quite impossible from the point of view of length to have included all the literature in foreign languages while to have done so would have defeated the essential aim of the volume namely that of providing a reasonably convenient guide for those who teach and study the subject but who are not primarily specialists in the field English Fiction in Transition, 1880-1920 ,1962 Plutarch and History Christopher Pelling,2011-12-31 Much of ancient history can only be written thanks to evidence supplied by Plutarch The historical methods and qualities of this vital source were for long subjected to little systematic analysis However over the last two decades an authoritative and profoundly influential set of studies has appeared in the field the work of Christopher Pelling Dispersed until now in a wide range of international journals and symposia these fifteen studies are here published in a single volume revised by the author with up to date annotations and bibliography Together with three new studies they form an essential reference work for serious students of classical Greece and Rome The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Victorian Ethical Optics Natalie Prizel,2024 Explores the way that characters and figures in Victorian literature and visual art encountered and observed the bodies of others particularly those bodies which were aberrant deformed and disabled The Shakespeare Play as Poem S.
