Macau In Transition From Colony To Autonomous Region:

Macau in Transition H. Yee, 2001-09-12 The book analyzes various aspects of the process of Macau's transition from a Portuguese autonomous territory to a Chinese special administrative region. It analyzes the role of those involved in the process: Beijing, Lisbon, the local Portuguese Macau administration, the Macau branch of the New China News Agency, the Luso-Chinese Joint Liaison Group, and the local political and social groups. It stresses the dynamics of interactions between actors as well as the political, economic, and social changes in the enclave that have direct or indirect impact on the transition.

China's Macao Transformed Eilo W.Y. YU, Ming K. CHAN, 2014-10-01 The return of Macao from the Portuguese administration to the People's Republic of China (PRC) in 1999 marks the beginning of its transformation in the 21st century. Macao was confronted with various issues concerning then-existing political system, economic downturn, and gangland violence during the transition period. Beijing put Macao under the One Country Two Systems and implemented a wide variety of measures in order to restore its law and order as well as to recover its tourism-dependent economy. Gradually, Macao transformed itself to Las Vegas of the East. This volume of 18 essays highlights the key dimensions of Macao's remarkable One Country Two Systems actualisation experience in its first 15 years and discusses how Macao transformed and what challenges it encountered during its post-handover transformation. The volume has several focuses. It first investigates the political and electoral issues in a critical manner: post-handover Macao suffered from maladministration and limited democratization, and the chief executives selected lacked representativeness due to restricted public participation in the electoral process. Overall speaking, the government lacked legitimacy and popular support. From a socio-economic point of view, this book looks into the business model in running Macao's casinos and the emerging culture of mass participation and youth participation in political affairs. The education reformation and changes in civic identity of local Macao Chinese are also addressed. Finally, the volume looks into how post-handover Macao relates itself in the international politics affair.

Hybrid Constitutionalism Eric C. Ip, 2019-04-25 This is the first book that focuses on the entrenched fundamental divergence between the Hong Kong Court of Final Appeal and Macao's Tribunal de Última Instância over their constitutional jurisprudence, with the former repeatedly invalidating unconstitutional legislation with finality and the latter having never challenged the constitutionality of legislation at all. This divergence is all the more remarkable when considered in the light of the fact that the two Regions, commonly subject to oversight by China's authoritarian Party-state, possess constitutional frameworks that are nearly identical, feature similar hybrid regimes, and share a lot in history, ethnicity, culture, and language. Informed by political science and economics, this book breaks new ground by locating the cause of this anomaly studied within the universe of authoritarian constitutionalism, not in the common law/civil law differences between these two former European dependencies but in the disparate levels of political transaction costs therein.

China's Policies On Its Borderlands And The International Implications Yufan Hao, Bill K P Chou, 2010-11-25 This book examines the interplay of two sets of policies the Chinese government's policies to its borderlands and international relations It proposes a conceptual framework and argues that China's policymakers fail to make complete use of the opportunities in the borderlands for accomplishing foreign policymakers agenda to strengthen China's relations with other countries neighboring ones in particular As a result these foreign policies reflect the political elites inadequate consideration of the negative impact of these policies on the borderlands and underscore their worry for territorial disintegration Therefore these policies center on the pursuit of central control through exercising administrative military coercion making the borderlands economically dependent standardizing the cultural identity and indoctrinating CCP defined ideology The challenges of the borderlands to the national integration are exaggerated so much that political elites pursued control and standardization at the expense of the identification of many people in borderlands with the regime China's international image and the relations with its neighbouring countries
