"I'm also rushed. Would you please do it?"

Then remain silent again.

"I would really appreciate it. Will you please do it for me?"

Then remain silent again.

"I'm busy too. Will you please do it?"

Then remain silent again.

"I don't feel like it either. Would you please do it?"

Then remain silent again.

Notice that she is not trying to convince him but is simply matching his resistance. If he is tired, don't try to prove that you are more tired and therefore he should help you. Or if he thinks he is too busy don't try to convince him that you are more busy. Avoid giving him reasons why he should do it. Remember, you are just asking and not demanding.
