La música y los medios de comunicación. Victoriano Darías de las Heras, 2018-06-20 Desde los primeros incunables hasta las plataformas de streaming interactivo la música ha tenido una estrecha relación con los medios de comunicación La radio la televisión el cine la publicidad o Internet no se explican sin ella. Así en el análisis del medio escrito el autor trata las primeras publicaciones de los siglos XVIII y XIX los años de gloria de los críticos musicales y la influencia en su día de la revista Rolling Stone para terminar constatando el papel menor que juega hoy en día. Con la televisión el análisis es similar pasando de los programas de variedades que como el Show de Ed Sullivan sentaban a toda la familia ante el televisor a la MTV y al actual carácter marginal de los programas musicales. El papel de la radio también es analizado por el autor aunque en este caso su pérdida de influencia tantas veces anunciada no ha terminado de materializarse. La utilización de la música como sustento de otros medios sobre todo en el cine y la publicidad es asimismo objeto de estudio incidiéndose en su capacidad para comunicar aquello que no se puede expresar con palabras. Precisamente la obra describe la música como medio de comunicación en sí mismo con capacidad para transmitir emociones y mensajes políticos y para crear identidades colectivas. Por último el autor se adentra en la última revolución mediática Internet. Este medio es especial por dos motivos. Por un lado por eliminar la separación existente hasta ese momento entre canal de comunicación y canal de distribución y por el otro porque Internet nos trae la economía en red creando por igual amenazas y oportunidades para los artistas.
