Saltonstall, 2022-03-03 At five out of the last six Olympic Games team GBR has been the top nation in sailing a result of strong leadership from the Royal Yachting Association and very talented sailors and coaches But Barry Pickthall formerly the Yachting Correspondent of The Times observes If one man deserves recognition for Britain's remarkable success within the sailing Olympic arena it is Jim Saltonstall the coach who has cajoled encouraged and inspired so many youngsters towards world stardom over the past 3 decades This is the story of Jim Saltonstall and his contribution to the success of British sailing It starts in his home county of Yorkshire and the seaside town of Bridlington where he learnt to sail It goes through his experiences in the Royal Navy which he joined aged 15 with tours all around the world but particularly sailing with the Royal Navy team and becoming the Royal Navy Sailing Coach This led to his appointment as the first RYA National Yacht Racing Coach the development of the GBR Race Training Scheme and in due course great success at youth world and Olympic levels The 31 Olympic medals won by the 19 sailors who give glowing praise to Jim in the Foreword confirms his contribution to this success Jim retired from his Team GBR role in 2000 after the Sydney Olympics but it is a testimony to him that two of the gold medallists from Tokyo 2020 which took place in 2021 in elite sports a lifetime since Jim retired credit him in their success saying he was a huge inspiration and they couldn't help be motivated by him On top of twice winning the Yachting Journalists Association Yachtsman of the Year Award 1984 and 1995 Jim was awarded the Lifetime Achievement Award at the 2022 British Yachting Awards The story is told as modestly as a Yorkshireman can and is interspaced with tales of cars car journeys and one or two parties Jim also takes time out of the story to give his thoughts on all aspects of youth training competing internationally and coaching Anyone involved in race training will benefit from the wisdom he provides in these pieces

Learning from Words Jennifer Lackey, 2010-03-18 Testimony is an invaluable source of knowledge We rely on the reports of those around us for everything from the ingredients in our food and medicine to the identity of our family members Recent years have seen an explosion of interest in the epistemology of testimony Despite the multitude of views offered a single thesis is nearly universally accepted testimonial knowledge is acquired through the process of transmission from speaker to hearer In this book Jennifer Lackey shows that this thesis is false and hence that the literature on testimony has been shaped at its core by a view that is fundamentally misguided She then defends a detailed alternative to this conception of testimony whereas the views currently dominant focus on the epistemic status of what speakers believe Lackey advances a theory that instead centers on what speakers say The upshot is that strictly speaking we do not learn from one another's beliefs we learn from one another's words Once this shift in focus is in place Lackey goes on to argue that though positive reasons are necessary for testimonial knowledge testimony itself is an irreducible epistemic source This leads to the development of a theory that gives proper credence to testimony's epistemologically dual nature both the speaker and the hearer must make a positive epistemic contribution to testimonial knowledge The resulting view not only reveals that testimony has the capacity to generate knowledge but it also gives appropriate weight to our nature as both socially indebted and individually rational creatures The approach found in this book will then represent a radical departure from the views currently dominating the epistemology of testimony and thus is intended to reshape our understanding of the deep and ubiquitous reliance we have on the testimony of those around us
