My Life In The Klan:

Ebony, 1983-06 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine My Life in the Klan Jerry Thompson, 1988 Behind the Lines Margaret Jones Patterson, Robert H. Russell, 1986 Patterson provides an insight into what happens when an investigative project is undertaken and what roles editors publishers and newspapers themselves play Analyzing six recent widely acclaimed investigative stories the book answers the questions How did the idea for the story originate How was the information found How were the stories written and edited And what were the results of the investigation The author considers ethical dilemmas as well such as the unattributed sources the use of deception and misrepresentation and how reporters must keep personal feelings from interfering with their work This story of investigative reporting is told through interviews with reporters editors and publishers involved in these award winning series ISBN 0 3231 06058 0 28 50 Undercover Reporting Brooke Kroeger, 2012-08-31 In her provocative book Brooke Kroeger argues for a reconsideration of the place of oft maligned journalistic practices While it may seem paradoxical much of the valuable journalism in the past century and a half has emerged from undercover investigations that employed subterfuge or deception to expose wrong Kroeger asserts that undercover work is not a separate world but rather it embodies a central discipline of good reporting the ability to extract significant information or to create indelible real time descriptions of hard to penetrate institutions or social situations that deserve the public's attention Together with a companion website that gathers some of the best investigative work of the past century Undercover Reporting serves as a rallying call for an endangered aspect of the journalistic endeavor The Ku Klux Klan and Related American Racist and Antisemitic Organizations Chester L. Quarles, 1999-01-01 Despite the fact that the Ku Klux Klan can be traced from the 1700s through the Civil War and is going strong in the present day many people fail to realize the reach and influence of the group Many scholars for instance perceive the KKK as a radical racist group composed primarily of ignorant uneducated members when it is actually much more Some Klan groups are political while others are simply social Some meet and eat just as any other mainstream civic or church group but others are focused toward the use of well planned violence Not all Klan groups advocate an overthrow of the U S government though some do The author traces the historical development of the Klan addressing its organization membership ideologies and philosophies Avoiding the bias of previous works written by either Klan apologists or detractors the author chronicles the directions the group has taken during its long and diverse history The study also details the secret oaths of allegiance the Imperial Wizards and the concept of Knighthood The result is an accurate account of the Ku Klux Klan a group that has continued to grow and evolve in response to changing times Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on Un-American Activities, 1966 Selected Writings and Speeches of Marcus Garvey Marcus Garvey, 2012-03-05 This anthology contains some of the African American rights advocate's most noted writings and speeches among them Declaration of the Rights of the Negro Peoples of the World and Africa for the Africans An Execution in the Family Robert Meeropol, 2007-04-01 Robert Meeropol was six years old in 1953 when his parents Ethel and Julius Rosenberg were executed after being convicted of Conspiracy to Commit Espionage on behalf of the Soviet Union at the height of the McCarthy era Just before they were put to death the Rosenbergs wrote a letter to their two sons saying they were secure in the knowledge that others would carry on after them The Rosenbergs left their young sons a legacy that was both a burden and a gift as well as an aching emotional void Robert Meeropol grew up torn between the need to pursue his political values and his intense fear that personal exposure might subject him and his family to violence or even death An Execution in the Family details Robert Meeropol's political odyssey from being the Rosenbergs son to becoming a prominent political activist in his own right and it chronicles a very personal journey of self discovery This is the story of how he tried to balance a strong desire to live a normal life and raise a family with a growing need to create something useful out of his childhood nightmare It is also a poignant account of how at age forty three he finally found a way to honor his parents and be true to himself Literary Digest ,1922 The Beginning and End of John Jefferson High School Phyllis Hogan, 2021-12-08 Nothing I mean nothing could stand in the way of achieving my goal of preserving the history of success despite the challenges of segregation at John Jefferson High School It didn't matter that my resources were very limited There was a sense of urgency I believe God chose a little nobody like me to preserve this history before it is lost forever Writing this book was no easy task however the research was an amazing experience In the beginning some former students were reluctant to talk and to share their few treasured pictures with me On the other hand some were excited to share When I started on this journey I didn't have a computer Also because of arthritis I would often have to straighten my fingers and continue to write Pain was ignored I was on my unstoppable mission Another challenge I met was dealing with my job At times I would get so exhausted that I would have to stop working on the book for a while When graduates finally opened up they would talk to me on the telephone for hours They could not stop talking An additional problem was limited funds I had to use paper from my old school and work tablets to handwrite information Finally I knew that I would need help with typing and editing and God blessed me with Mrs Deanna Issac Dr Nanthalia McJamerson and Dr Gwendolyn Duhon I had faith that I could accomplish this task this mission Now the rest is history
