Lucky Day Susan Thayer Bowker, 1902 Collaborative Strategies for Teaching Reading Comprehension Judi

Moreillon, 2007-02-26 Presents a collection of collaborative strategies for classroom teachers and librarians designed to help improve students reading comprehension Imaginings Cameron McNaughton, 2019-04-10 Imaginings is a book I have had the utmost pleasure in writing and producing Imaginings covers a variety of topics of all types for all types of people to enjoy and study if you wish The various topics that are discussed were actually created as coping mechanisms for me personally as the writer to get through my own struggles by understanding the perspectives of other people That s what Imaginings is it s based on other people s perspectives I believe we can all have our favourites though I have no connection to the book in its entirety I can emotionally connect and relate to many poems Other people will as well just with their own unique poem and taste I have always had the idea and this is where I got the name from that Imaginings would surround people with different feelings images and ideas that only they can feel That s what I want and that s what Imaginings are From the bottom of my heart dear reader I hope you find your special poem s and I would love for you to express your ideas This is a message from me Cameron I hope you enjoy Truestory Catherine Simpson, 2024-06-11 A mother tethered to her home by an autistic son who s tethered to his computer yearns for freedom in this sharply observed novel A terrific read The Herald Alice s life is dictated by her autistic son Sam who refuses to leave their remote Lancashire farm Her only escape is two hours in Lancaster on Tuesday afternoons Then one day her husband brings rootless wanderer Larry to the farm to embark on a money making scheme Alice is hostile but Larry beguiles Sam with tales of travel in the outside world and soon Alice begins to fall for him too By turns blackly comic heartbreaking and heartwarming Truestory looks at what happens when sacrifice slithers towards martyrdom and how even when we feel trapped in our lives we sometimes have more options than we realise Moving but never mawkish and ultimately hopeful providing a sympathetic portrait of a family struggling with autism in straitened times Sam s on line interactions with a motley group of friends are laugh out loud funny Sunday Mirror Simpson s writing is vivid perceptive and acute James Robertson Walter Scott Prize winning author of News of the Dead The Numbers T. Bill

McKnight, 2024-06-06 This book is about a young man named John who seems to always be down on his luck struggling to make ends meet a young woman named Beth who wants to be a model and her husband Tom who seems overqualified for any job he applies for But on a rainy day in Los Angeles John stops to help a young lady named Beth who was not familiar with the traffic woes in Los Angeles to reach her destination Beth s husband Tom was picking up a few things at the grocery store near their apartment While he was paying for his groceries he heard a reporter on the television at the market reporting on the lottery drawing that evening The cashier asked him if he wanted to try his luck Tom thought about it and then replied Yes I think I ll give it a try Tom walked out of the store feeling lucky and decided to have a beer at Hurley s Bar and Grille The television there was on full blast and the reporter was calling out the numbers Tom looked at his numbers in disbelief and yelled out I think I have the winning numbers Incredibly happy that he had somehow just won millions of dollars he began running down the sidewalk and sprinted across the street to his old black classic Pontiac Trans Am He looked again at his lottery ticket and called his wife He listened to the phone as it began to ring Come on Beth answer your phone right now honey Tom listened to her phone message and at the sound of the beep he spoke Beth call me immediately when you hear this message Tom put his cell phone down and started up his Trans Am A couple of minutes later as Tom drove through the middle of the intersection with a green light suddenly without any warning there was a flash of light as his Trans Am was broadsided by a speeding car running through a red light at an incredibly high rate of speed colliding with the Trans Am trapping Tom inside and unconscious

Headhunters on Parade Elias Sassoon,2000-10-04 Speaking Our Selves Asiimwe Deborah Kawe,Robert H. Vorlicky,2025-03-04 Speaking Our Selves brings together eight remarkable plays by women writers from the under represented African countries of Tanzania Mozambique Ethiopia Mali Burundi Benin and Sudan plus a play by award winning Ugandan playwright and volume coeditor Asiimwe Kawe Four of the plays are translated into English from Kiswahili French or Kirundi and French while most of the plays preserve African indigenous languages including Runyankore Lusoga Mina Fon Bambara Luganda Kiswahili and Kirundi Although the plays are united in presenting women as central figures who own their voices they also represent a rich diversity of story telling Each unique dramaturgy is rooted in African forms of story telling that occasionally merge with recognizable Western forms to create hybrid dramatic forms These hybrid methods emphasize the striking ways in which African women writers continue to experiment with form moving beyond Western influenced dramaturgy if and when it jeopardizes their authentic ways of artistic expression and creation through language movement and music centered in African Cosmology The plays within Speaking Our Selves confront a range of ideas and issues including women embracing the potential of agency in often contested subject positions confronting their historical object positions in worlds of devastating patriarchal authority resisting toxic masculinity and persistent oppressive binaries of gender roles finding power in communities of women increasing their acumen in financial business and economic spheres facing tensions between traditional religious tenets and efforts toward secularization living with perpetual acts of violence toward their bodies and the rising mental health issues among girls and women across the continent Readers and audiences are challenged by these plays not to be passive witnesses by observing from safe vantage points but rather to be active participants in the stories being told
