Fan into Flame Gat, John G.,2020-02-27 From an early age John Gat yearns for and cherishes his independence At the end of his primary school education instead of joining a teacher training college young Gat opts to travel to Nairobi believing a better world awaited him there Much later after scratching hard he discovers this better world when he joins the army Serving in Ethiopia and Somaliland and finally travelling to London for the Victory Parade thrills young Gat despite the dangers involved It is at the peak of his career in the military and after receiving the most coveted awards that John Gat makes another decision to retire from the army and work closer home Gat the civilian engages in different jobs before working as a clerk at Kambui Mission Church It had nothing to do with my Christian faith it was purely for the salary and my desire to work and live near my family he confesses It was during his service at Kambui that he encountered the flame that continues to burn in him as he allows himself to be used to transform others Fan into Flame is a multi layered narrative with the nuances of a thriller as the author unveils dramatic events that took place when he was a soldier in Ethiopia and the serenity that he encounters after his rebirth The story spans through the history of colonial and independent Kenya Rev John Gat's passion for his work as a servant of God brings out the best in everyone he interacts with no matter what their station in life His role as an agent of peace and positive change in the church his country and beyond cannot be overemphasised The Very Rev Dr John G Gat is the first African Secretary General of the Presbyterian Church of East Africa PCEA and was Moderator of the 9th 10th General Assembly of the Church He is well known in the theological circles for his call in the early 1970s for a Moratorium on Missionaries and foreign personnel to churches in the developing world and a great African ecumenist He lives in his farm in Karen on the outskirts of the city of Nairobi and continues to write and advise the Church

The Marion Milner Method Emilia Halton-Hernandez,2023-04-03 This book traces the development of British psychoanalyst Marion Milner's 1900-98 autobiographical acts throughout her lifetime proposing that Milner is a thinker to whom we can turn to explore the therapeutic potentialities of autobiographical and creative self expression Milner's experimentation with aesthetic self expressive techniques are a means to therapeutic ends forming what Emilia Halton Hernandez calls her autobiographical cure This book considers whether Milner's work champions this site for therapeutic work over that of the relationship between patient and analyst in the psychoanalytic setting This book brings to light a theory and practice which is latent and sometimes hidden but which is central to understanding what drives Milner's autobiographical work It is by doing this work of elucidation and organisation that Halton Hernandez finds Milner to be a thinker with a unique take on psychoanalysis object relations theory creativity and autobiography working at the interstices of each Divided into two fascinating sections exploring Milner's distinctive method and the legacy and influence of her work this book will appeal to psychoanalysts art therapists philosophers and art and literary researchers alike The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
