Music at the Borders Philip Hayward, 1998 Not Drowning Waving formed in Melbourne in 1983 Over the next decade they became one of Australia's most original rock bands recording a series of inventive albums and attracting critical acclaim Music At The Borders provides a detailed history of one remarkable facet of their career their long term engagement with the music and musicians of Papua New Guinea Individual chapters analyse the Melbourne music culture from which the band emerged the musical style they developed their work with musicians associated with PNG's Pacific Gold Studios and the band's reunion for the 1996 Sing Sing tour Metaphor and the Slave Trade in West African Literature Laura T.

Murphy, 2012-04-02 Metaphor and the Slave Trade provides compelling evidence of the hidden but unmistakable traces of the transatlantic slave trade that persist in West African discourse Through an examination of metaphors that describe the trauma loss and suffering associated with the commerce in human lives this book shows how the horrors of slavery are communicated from generation to generation Laura T Murphy's insightful new readings of canonical West African fiction autobiography drama and poetry explore the relationship between memory and metaphor and emphasize how repressed or otherwise marginalized memories can be transmitted through images tropes rumors and fears By analyzing the unique codes through which West Africans have represented the slave trade this work foregrounds African literary contributions to Black Atlantic discourse and draws attention to the archive that metaphor unlocks for scholars of all disciplines and fields of study

David Bowie in Darkness Nicholas P. Greco, 2015-07-10 As an artist David Bowie was widely considered a chameleon shedding one persona to create another and thus staying popular relevant and compelling In reality Bowie was able to work with the resources around him to create something new causing many to see him as a sort of lone artist rather than a collaborator in the creation of his own celebrity Mid career Bowie began presenting himself as a figure in darkness progressively more hidden He required an audience for his continued celebrity but worked against that audience in the creation or rather the destruction of his star image This tension is made clear in his 1995 album 1 Outside which has him performing for an audience while simultaneously shunning them This book explores Bowie's negotiation of his celebrity during his later career with particular focus on 1 Outside an album symptomatic of deep seated societal and personal anxiety

501 Essential Albums of the '80s Gary Graff, 2025-05-20 501 Essential Albums of 80s is the ultimate curated list detailing dozens of the decade's most influential releases across all genres featuring descriptions of the releases album art and artist imagery

Song and Circumstance Sytze Steenstra, 2010-03-30 This is the first book to offer a full account of Byrne's sprawling artistic portfolio

Against Ambience and Other Essays Seth Kim-Cohen, 2016-03-10 Against Ambience diagnoses in order to cure the art world's recent turn toward ambience Over the course of three short months June to September 2013 the four most prestigious museums in New York indulged the ambience of sound and light James Turrell at the Guggenheim Soundings at MoMA Robert Irwin at the Whitney and Janet Cardiff at the Met In addition two notable shows at smaller galleries indicate that this is not simply a major donor movement Collectively these shows constitute a proposal about what we wanted from art in 2013 While we're in the soft embrace of light the NSA and Facebook are still collecting our data the money in our bank accounts is still being used to fund who knows what without our knowledge or consent the government we elected is still imprisoning and targeting people with whom we have no beef We deserve an art that is the equal of our information age Not one that parrots the age's self assertions or modes of dissemination but an art that is hyper aware vigilant active engaged and informed We are now one hundred years clear of Duchamp's first readymades So why should we find ourselves so thoroughly in thrall to ambience Against Ambience argues for an art that acknowledges its own methods and intentions its own position in the structures of cultural power and persuasion Rather than the warm glow of light or the soothing wash of sound Against Ambience proposes an art that cracks the surface of our prevailing patterns of encounter initiating productive disruptions and deconstructions

Drinking from the Cosmic Gourd B. Nyamnjoh, 2017-03-15 This book questions colonial and apartheid ideologies on being human and being African ideologies that continue to shape how research is conceptualised taught and practiced in universities across Africa Africans immersed in popular traditions of meaning making are denied the right by those who police the borders of knowledge to think and represent their realities in accordance with the civilisations and universes they know best Often the ways of life they cherish are labelled and dismissed too eagerly as traditional knowledge by some of the very African intellectual elite they look to for protection The book makes a case for sidestepped traditions of knowledge It draws attention to Africa's possibilities prospects and emergent capacities for being and becoming in tune with its creativity and imagination It speaks to the nimble footed flexible minded frontier African at the crossroads and junctions of encounters facilitating creative conversations and challenging regressive logics of exclusionary identities The book uses Amos Tutuola's stories to question dualistic assumptions about reality and scholarship and to call for conviviality interconnections and interdependence between competing knowledge traditions in Africa
