My mother never married my father. She was married to and divorced from another man, then she married and divorced my stepfather and then, ultimately, they ended up getting back together.

Behind the Eight Ball Tanya Telfair Sharpe, 2005 Behind the Eight Ball Sex for Crack Cocaine Exchange and Poor Black Women documents an American tragedy that highlights the widening gap between social and economic classes In their own words poor black women nameless faceless and marginalized by poverty share the details of their lives before and after crack cocaine invaded their communities each recalling the circumstances of her introduction to the drug and her first experience using sex to support her addiction These candid interviews expose the socioeconomic changes in inner city neighborhoods that created the perfect conditions for a crack stronghold the crack cocaine economy's impact on the lives of inner city residents and the social and familial consequences of crack addiction among poor black women

Silence Moves Andrés J. Fernández, 2025-02-09 This is a collection of stories about my journey to find answers to the challenges surrounding my relationships with my mother father and grandparents especially during my childhood and adolescence I have explored these challenges in the context of cultural norms traditions and the ancestral or collective trauma that has been passed down through generations It reflects on a journey that started when a stroke incapacitated my mother It delves into the silence that moves through generations surrounding abuse alcoholism and my parents lived experiences uncovering how these issues have shaped my life as I strive to heal from unanswered questions lost parental love and trauma They tell stories of disappointment resilience hope and the understanding that not everything can be answered recaptured forgiven or forgotten

A Place in El Paso Gloria López-Stafford, 1996 This memoir of growing up in El Paso in the 1940s and 1950s creates an entire city the way a barrio awakens in the early morning sun the thrill of a rare desert snow the taste of fruit flavored raspadas on summer afternoons the money boys who beg from commuters passing back and forth to Ju rez and the mischief of children entertaining themselves in the streets L pez Stafford shows readers El Paso through the eyes of Yoya short for Gloria the high spirited narrator who is five years old when the book begins Yoya is a survivor Her young mother has died leaving her in the care of her much older father who tries to provide for his family by selling used clothing Her brother Carlos Padre Luna and a community of children and women assume responsibility for Yoya but like the inexplicable loss of her mother unexpected changes separate her from her beloved barrio The search for su lugar her place becomes a search for identity as Gloria seeks to understand her various homes and families

My Second Childhood K. L. Smith, 2025-03-17 My Second Childhood is a collection of my random thoughts and memories I have lived through my first childhood and many years of being an adult Everything has seasons in the sun including us The spring summer and fall of my life have passed too quickly I am now living in the winter of my life or as some may call it my second childhood I consider it a blessing to have lived long enough to reach old age It is a gift that everyone does not receive I have released myself from the binding ties of doing what others think I should do I am no longer obligated to employers nor bonded by schedules I have turned the child in me loose to enjoy the last days of my life I am grateful that God has allowed me and my husband of nearly sixty years to enjoy our second childhood together I have time to sit for hours and reminisce and remember moments from my past I have time to analyze stories that were told to me by my ancestors about my family s history I wonder how much of the stories are true and complete Have there been parts of the stories omitted Relatives who have been disowned may not have been included in the accounts of the past We all have secrets and stories that we will never tell What secrets have not been told in these stories Are the stories altered or enhanced to make the past more glorified or sensational There are many questions that I wish I had asked my relatives while they were still alive The answers to these questions will probably go unanswered Over the years I have heard varying accounts of the same stories of our family s history from my younger ancestors Their stories are not congruent with the family history told to me from the lips of my ancestors Their stories do not track with the things that I myself experienced and observed in the presence of my long deceased relatives I was there in the flesh with some of these relatives I can still close my eyes and see them in my mind s eyes I can still hear their voices in my mind s ears I remember these relatives and what they were like In the pages of this book I have written stories about friends and relatives from my past and present I have written a partial accounting of my family s history according to how it was told to me and from my personal observations and experiences As I get older I find that a lot of things no longer matter It does not matter to me who my relatives were or where they came from All that matters is that I was born and had the privilege of living the four seasons of my life in God s beautiful world Ultimately we are all God s children and brothers and sisters in Christ We are all connected through God
