

My Movie Busineb

Jason E. Squire

My Movie Busineb:

My Movie Business John Irving, 2012-05-08 John Irving's memoir describes the author's involvement and lack thereof in five of the films that have and have not been made from his nine novels. My Movie Business focuses primarily on the thirteen years Mr Irving spent writing and rewriting his screenplay of The Cider House Rules for four different directors. A Miramax production, the film was finally shot in the fall of 1998, directed by the Swedish director Lasse Hallström. My Life as a Dog with Michael Caine in the role of Dr Larch. The Cider House Rules is a November 1999 release. Mr Irving also writes about the failed effort to make his first novel Setting Free the Bears into a movie, about two of the films that were made from his novels but not from his screenplays The World According to Garp and The Hotel New Hampshire, and about his ongoing struggle to shepherd his screenplay of A Son of the Circus into production. In addition to its qualities as a memoir, anecdotal comic, affectionate and candid, My Movie Business is an insightful essay on the essential differences between writing a novel and writing a screenplay. Never have the two forms of storytelling been so lucidly compared and contrasted; the details are memorable, the examples clarifying. My Movie Business includes photos by Stephen Vaughan, the still photographer on the film set of The Cider House Rules.

The Movie Business Kelly Crabb, 2005-05-05 Making a movie may be part art and part science, but it's 100 percent business. In this comprehensive and accessible guide, Kelly Charles Crabb shares the information necessary to understand the legal and financial challenges involved in getting a film from story to the silver screen and beyond. Drawing on over twenty years of experience in the entertainment industry as both lawyer and producer, Crabb reveals his insider's knowledge on: Understanding copyright and intellectual property law; Obtaining financial backing; Selecting and hiring the key players; Overseeing the filming; Locking in the theatrical, home video, and TV distribution; Understanding merchandise licensing; and everything else you need to know to make a serious run at producing and exploiting a movie. Offering hands-on illustrations from actual movie contracts to show how the basic deals for each of the many stages are assembled, the author explains in plain and simple terms what the contracts contain and why. It gives the big picture and the finer points of movie making from concept to raking in the last dollar after the film is completed. While it may not transform you into a lawyer or an industry accountant, and that's not what you want anyway, it will take you through all the business and legal principles you need to know to be a successful and knowledgeable professional producer.
