The Rogue's Folly comes a Regency romance celebrating the witty and romantic world that fans of Georgette Heyer have fallen in love with. When Truelove Becket's betrothed went missing in a naval battle she vowed never to marry unless she found someone she loved as much. In the seven years since then the quiet vicar's daughter has lived a simple and contented life helping the poor people of her village. But now another man has asked for her hand in marriage and unsure if she is ready to commit to him she agrees to accompany her beautiful cousin Arabella on a trip to visit friends so she can take time to think it over. Viscount Drake cut a dashing figure when he returned from war to a hero's welcome but the Battle of Waterloo left him a shattered and haunted man. As his dreams are invaded by the terrors of war he becomes a sleepless shell of a man and as his torment grows he begins to wonder if marriage to the lovely Arabella will help restore him again. But as Arabella coquettishly flirts to secure Drake's hand and his riches it is the pretty and practical True he turns to for solace. With the weight of her marriage proposal bearing down on her True finds herself irresistibly attracted to Drake's quiet dignity and genuine distress just as he finds himself drawn to her honest nature and soothing compassion. When a spark of passion ignites between these two who have both lost so much to war they will have to confront their biggest fears and everyone else's plans for their futures to discover if love can truly cure all ills. Miss Truelove Beckons is well written and flows brilliantly. A wonderful heart wrenching and romantic tale. Goodreads

Folk Songs of the Catskills Norman Cazden, Herbert Haufrecht, Norman Studer, 1983-06-30 Part of the ancient Appalachians and just a few miles up the road from a massive metropolitan area the Catskills have been home to the variety of people who have made the history of the New World. The songs collected here reflect this history. They are songs of rafting and lumbering war and railroads prison and hard times and nonsense and drinking. And they are songs of love tragic love thwarted love foolish love and sometimes even true love. Collecting the songs began in 1941 when educator Norman Studer and composer Herbert Haufrecht led a group of young people on folklore trips through the mountains. The distinguished musician Norman Cazden continued the collection adding his research and scholarship. The book is the cumulative work of these three colleagues. Useful as an annotated archive of regional lore Folk Songs of the Catskills traces roots to early Scottish Irish Welsh English and American sources. Both texts and musical structure are compared to other traditional songs. Extended search for tune relatives is directed towards tracing the known use of each tune strain whether in variants with similar texts or quite different texts. Some of the Catskill versions of tunes have not been found elsewhere and others are rarely encountered. Whether related to others or unique to the Catskills the commentary on the songs in this collection contributes to a more general theory of the nature of traditional tunes and their transformation. The late composer musicologist and university professor Norman Cazden worked meticulously over a period of many years to trace traditional melodies and texts. Both Cazden and fellow composer Herbert Haufrecht were music directors of Camp Woodland a unique summer school in the Catskill Mountains which acquainted students with the folklore of this musically rich region. The late Norman Studer one of the founders and for many years the director of
