My Private War:

My Private War Robert Winkler, 2013 On the BC Robert Winkler was born in Budapest and graduated from high school He was drafted into forced labor in 1944 After the war he entered the technical university of Budapest and graduated in structural engineering He immigrated to the US in 1957 after the Hungarian Revolution and had a productive career in civil engineering He has been married to Jolan Winkler for 37 years and lives in Riverdale New York This book tells the story of a young Hungarian Jewish man drafted into forced labor and his numerous escape attempts The escape artist vividly describes the tricks he used to fool the Hungarian and the Germans who inadvertently shielded him from Hungarian captors The Private War of Howie Beach Howie Beach, 2009-07 For some strange reason there was a common belief among World War Two vets that except for families relatives and close friends the general public really was not interested in their lives as combat soldiers The passing of time has helped those veterans who are alive today to feel comfortable in contributing their military exploits and personal history Mine is but one of many stories that can be told yet as time marches on I realize the extraordinary circumstance which allowed me to survive from Normandy to the Elbe It has served to validate historical accounts of key battles in five major campaigns and the atrocities committed by Germany before our freeing of surviving prisoners from death camps I also feel it my duty as an existing veteran of World War Two to honor my fallen combat brothers who deserved so much more for their valor than a humble grave or burial at sea Their heroics values and comradeship are etched indelibly in my memory To whatever degree I am able I wish to give life and meaning to those men who died so long ago and from whose ultimate sacrifice we have secured the liberties and freedoms we so long have enjoyed I must say I feel an added urgency to leave to the world and my posterity an eyewitness record of those historic eleven months from our landing on Omaha Beach to meeting the Russian Army on the Elbe River and the subsequent occupation of defeated Nazi Germany Author's statement A Woman's War Gail Harris, Pam McLaughlin, 2009-12-08 When Gail Harris was assigned by the U S Navy to a combat intelligence job in 1973 she became the first African American female to hold such a position Her 28 year career included hands on leadership in the intelligence community during every major conflict from the Cold War to Desert Storm to Kosovo and most recently at the forefront of one of the Department of Defense's newest challenges Cyber Warfare At her retirement she was the highest ranking African American female in the Navy A Woman's War The Professional and Personal Journey of the Navy's First African American Female Intelligence Officer is an inspirational memoir that follows Gail Harris's career as a naval intelligence officer sharing her unique experience and perspective as she completed the complex task of providing intelligence support to military operations while also battling the status quo office bullies and politics This book also looks at the way intelligence is used and misused in these perilous times

War Lessons John Merson, 2008-04-29 Military memoirs abound but few prove to be trustworthy accounts free of spin bravura or military glitter John Merson's War Lessons takes a rare reflective approach to this pressing issue of our time In vivid unadorned prose he interweaves his own experiences in war with thoughtful assessments of how to prevent it He highlights the daily experience of combat from the perspective of both the foot soldier and the villager in whose home the war is being fought When he leaves Vietnam Merson begins an odyssey that brings him back eight times The book limns this process as a poignant personal voyage and the author struggles to understand why young people are drawn to war how it changes those who fight it why its destructive effects persist on both sides how former enemies reconcile and how soldiers wanted to be treated and remembered by the citizens who send them to war War Lessons also offers hope suggesting strategies for young people to help the world reclaim its humanity through healing actions such as participating in UN peacekeeping programs working to prosecute war crimes and protecting refugees Inside the Hurricane Adam Knight,2010-09 This is the true story of one boy's struggle to survive the rage and violence of an alcoholic father and then later in childhood his hateful and sadistic stepmother Left behind at the age of four by his mother he is shuttled from one foster home to another only to ultimately return to the custody of his father a ruthless six foot three man who did not hesitate in unleashing his alcohol inspired wrath upon a small and helpless child on a regular and ongoing basis This monstrous and egregious treatment frequently resulted in physical battering and a mindset consisting of terror and fear But despite the horrific trauma that this young boy endured and the sustained effect that it has had on his psyche he not only survived the dysfunctional environment of his early childhood but actually prevailed in the face of those overwhelming odds Once free of the toxic underpinnings of his early years he went on to complete college pursue a career in software development and found the woman who would become his soul mate My Private War Mitch Harris,2025-07-14 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1995 Time Streams J. Robert King,2018-03-27 Urza's Legacy Unfolds Urza Planeswalker has enlisted the most brilliant minds from across Dominaria to study at his academy on Tolaria Together they work to bring to life the greatest artifact weapon Urza has ever devised hoping to use it to defend their home from an imminent Phyrexian invasion But treachery and tragedy stalk the tiny island as Urza and his followers seek to manipulate time itself This Great Escape Andrew Steinmetz,2013-09-18 SHORTLISTED FOR THE 60 000 HILARY WESTON WRITERS TRUST PRIZE FOR NONFICTION What the hell kind of great escape is this No one escapes L B Mayer on the 1963 film He had fifty seven seconds of screen time in the most lavish POW film Hollywood ever produced He was blond A Gestapo agent Sauntering down the aisles of a speeding train he speaks in terse German to Richard Attenborough Gordon Jackson David McCallum The film is The Great Escape by John Sturges starring Steve McQueen the actor though uncredited is Michael Paryla He was part Jewish Shortly after filming he died In This Great Escape Andrew Steinmetz tenderly reconstructs the life of a man seen by millions yet recognized by no one whose history from childhood flight from Nazism to suspicious death twenty years later intersects bitterly ironically and often movingly with the plot of Sturges's great war film Splicing together documentary materials with correspondence diary entries and Steinmetz's own travel journal This Great Escape does more than reconstruct the making of a cinema classic it is a poignant and moving testament to the complexity of human experience a portrait of a family for whom acting was a matter of survival and proof that our most anonymous uncredited and undocumented moments can brush against the zeitgeist of world history Off Shore Birgit Braasch, Claudia Müller, 2020

The book highlights facets of people's experiences since the 19th century with Atlantic space and the design of their stay on board ships The contributions range from the perspective of pleasure seeking tourists who used ships as a temporary luxurious homes to the perspective of military personnel who perceived the Atlantic Passage as a transition between homeland security and potentially dangerous professional operations the risks of sea voyages even on technically sophisticated ocean liners whose interiors and services often include grand hotels in the metropolises of the late 19th and 20th century were discreetly ignored by the passengers The charm of the Atlantic and the ship unthinkable in earlier times should not be decimated in any way
