

Hey, I've decided I'm not going to open the door with mom. It sounds like it would really only benefit mom because she wants a relationship but hasn't worked on the issues in anyway. She still can't admit fault with Magnus. She can't admit even the physical abuse when I was a kid, let alone emotional. She hasn't respected the boundaries I set by still texting constantly. She still doesn't have a control on her emotions or her mental health. I just don't see any benefit for me to put myself back in the exact same situation.

For what it's worth, I think you should tell her to stop placing that emotional burden on you. I don't think it's fair to you in any way. If she's unwilling to do the work herself, she shouldn't be burdening you with fixing things.

I don't want you to ever feel like I expect you to fix our relationship. That's not your job and it's way too much on you.

Shortly, if she doesn't care enough to put in the work, you shouldn't have to make up that gap for her.

My Will, God's Response: God's Will, My Response Aletha Voges, 2010-03 Where is God when life seems to be falling apart Is he listening to our cries for help How does one trust a God who seems silent Worse yet how does one trust when God says no to our requests In My Will God's Response God's Will My Response Aletha C Voges shares insights learned and blessings received as she grappled with issues of faith while her husband battled pancreatic cancer In devotional thoughts Aletha shares her soul as she cried out to God for answers to her prayers You will be led through a trail of amazing events orchestrated by God to accomplish his purpose Are you struggling with faith issues in your life today Take your own faith journey with Aletha as she shares how God made himself known to her through her trials Could It Happen to You?

Michael G. Smith, 2010-04-21 You may have heard of the infamous dog snatches baby case that happened in Kentucky in July 2009 Just three days old Baby AJ was fast asleep in his crib after a morning feeding With his parents downstairs preparing for the rest of the day Dakota and Nikita two of the family dogs snuck upstairs and opened the back door to the bedroom Dakota then took AJ out of his crib and proceeded out back into the woods carrying AJ in her mouth The mother Chrissie is a British citizen and the father Michael was born in Indiana Together they give a brief account of their lives prior to the accident followed by excruciating details of the accident itself including the 15 minutes it took to find their son and the nightmare they had to endure afterwards Starting with the accident and the 911 call followed by the emergency room and AJ's stay in Pediatric Intensive Care Michael and Chrissie give a very personal account of the feelings and emotions they experienced along with pictures from their private collection Although the story generated a massive media storm and immediately made national news the public was generally shielded from the private details the couple had to deal with in the background Michael and Chrissie intimately share those private details including social services and Sheriff investigations that ultimately resulted in information brought before the grand jury and formal child neglect charges filed against the couple Michael and Chrissie gives you a chance to step into their shoes and experience what it was like to not only live through a horrifying accident of this nature but for all of the parents out there with newborns wonder whether or not Could This Happen To You

Real Solution Assertiveness Workbook Richard H. Pfeiffer, 2005 Most people can be assertive in some situations and yet not be effectual in others This workbook aims to expand the number of situations in which a person can choose to be assertive Graduated exercises allow the reader to apply his or her newly acquired skills Aesthetics and Film Katherine Thomson-Jones, 2008-10-23 Aesthetics and Film is a philosophical study of the art of film Its motivation is the recent surge of interest among analytic philosophers in the philosophical implications of central issues in film theory and the application of general issues in aesthetics to the specific case of film Of particular interest are questions concerning the distinctive representational capacities of film art particularly in relation to realism and narration the influence of the literary paradigm in understanding film authorship and interpretation and our imaginative and affective engagement with film For all of these questions Katherine Thomson Jones critically compares the most compelling answers driving home key points with a wide range of film examples including Wiene's The Cabinet of Doctor Caligari Eisenstein's October Hitchcock's Rear Window Kubrick's The Shining and Sluizer's The Vanishing Students and scholars of aesthetics and cinema will find this an illuminating accessible and highly enjoyable investigation into the nature and power of a technologically evolving art form

Sunshine what guy do you know has a weird fetish for sign language She's a shadow of the girl she once was haunted by the nightmare of a high school party that changed her life forever Tragedy stole her innocence and silenced her voice before she could speak the truth Branded a liar by the court she watched her attacker walk free leaving her trapped in a cage of painful memories and crushing solitude Forced to communicate through sign language she struggles to express the words she's too broken to say He's everything she's tried to avoid a boy wrapped in bad rumors and whispered lies a magnet for trouble and the embodiment of all her fears With sharp edges and a mysterious aura he's the kind of chaos she doesn't need but can't ignore When an essay unexpectedly brings them together she begins to endure his arrogance and he starts to understand her silence But as he asks the questions no one else dares to their fragile connection deepens Can she let go of the chains of her past and trust him to help her heal Or will the ghosts of her trauma drag her back into the darkness Fate has a strange way of intertwining lives but not all paths lead to happy endings In this raw and gripping tale of heartbreak resilience and unexpected love two broken souls may discover that sometimes the unlikely connections have the power to save us Falling into your Smile is a story of pain and hope silence and discovery perfect for readers who believe in the healing power of love and the courage to rebuild

Creating Love John Bradshaw, 1994-01-01 Why are so many of us at times completely baffled by a relationship How can we think we know someone so well and admit in the end that we hardly knew that person at all Why do many people who work diligently and strenuously to gain wholeness and balance still feel so frustrated about having a fulfilling relationship Why have so many people given up on love from the Prologue John Bradshaw's bestselling books and compelling PBS series have touched and changed millions of lives Now in Creating Love he offers us a new way to understand our most crucial relationships with our romantic partners and spouses with our parents and children with friends and co-workers with ourselves and with God Bradshaw's compassionate approach shows that many of us have been literally entranced by past experiences of counterfeit love so we unknowingly re-create patterns that can never fulfill us Here he provides both the insights and the precise tools we need to keep those destructive patterns from repeating in the present And then he shows how we can open ourselves to the soul-building work of real love and create healthy loving relationships where we can be fully ourselves in every part of our lives

The Consciously Unbiased Educator Huda Essa, 2024-03-21 Educators must achieve cultural proficiency to overcome unconscious biases and tap the limitless potential of their school communities

In The Consciously Unbiased Educator cultural proficiency expert and former teacher Huda Essa helps educators uncover and surmount the limitations of unconscious biases stereotypes that form below the surface of our awareness making them harder to detect Although these biases aren't formed with the intent to do harm if they are not interrupted they contribute to negative outcomes for students With warmth and wisdom Essa urges educators to move past any reflexive defensiveness or shame that comes with facing these biases to take a journey that will ultimately empower and benefit the entire school community Filled with rich clarifying insights drawn from Essa's own experience as well as comprehensive research findings this inspirational resource pushes readers thinking to new levels To aid in examining these biases this thought provoking yet highly approachable book offers Practical ideas strategies and tools such as a personal index enabling readers to gather and organize learning in the most resonant meaningful way possible Thoughtful discussion of essential concepts and terms including the cultural proficiency continuum privilege culturally responsive practices exclusionary behaviors and more Numerous exercises that encourage readers to activate their critical consciousness and use the author's 3Rs review reflect resolve method to respond to real life scenarios Deep reflection prompts to foster mindful contemplation and gain confidence for engaging in productive discourse about sensitive topics Editable PDF versions of the prompts and resources within the book are also available to enhance and extend opportunities for reflection and learning Readers will build the knowledge and skills they need to become their own manual and apply their learning off the page Educators can change the status quo If we want our students to remember us as educators who touch hearts open minds and awaken souls we must boldly address the topic of bias

Life: the Gift That Keeps on Giving Jane S. Green, 2017-11-08 Everyone has a story to tell and I selected to tell my story through my blog formerly called Monday Morning Bluees which is an acronym for Believe Life Uses Everyone and Everything Spiritually I have endured many hurts mistakes lessons pains failures heartbreaks disappointments hardships and struggles throughout my life but I have also been on the receiving end of countless success stories miracles breakthroughs victories accomplishments awards accolades and other blessings I have come to accept that life is filled with polarities and I came to this time space reality to experience All of life including both its ups and its downs mostly ups I am learning that I gain strength and momentum when I go through uncomfortable situations circumstances and experiences Reflecting on my life's story allows me an opportunity to release and heal my past I now have a greater appreciation for where I have been a warm acceptance and peace for where I am presently and a clearer perspective on where I am going My intention for this work is to shed light on issues that many females face and provide comfort in knowing that we are not alone on this journey I call Life
