Public Loneliness Gerald Brennan, 2014-07-29 October 1967 Yuri Gagarin sits atop a Proton rocket ready to launch After several turbulent years in the public eye he s been chosen in secrecy to captain

the Soviet Union's latest space spectacular the first manned flight around the moon The second story in the Altered Space series Public Loneliness is a detailed and imaginative look at a country and a space program with a curious schizophrenia regarding publicity and secrecy Based on extensive research it's also a lively and literary story that references familiar classics like Hemingway's The Old Man and the Sea and forgotten landmarks of Soviet socialist realism while also touching on universal themes of adventure alcoholism heroism and shame It's a compelling look behind the massive posters at the all too real man who led the human race into space The titles in the Altered Space series are wholly separate narratives but all deal with the mysteries of space and time progress and circularity Each one is an ens of words in which orbits of spacecraft moons planets and people allow us fresh perspectives on the cycles of our own lives Perfectly Imperfect Marion

Reeves,2017-03-01 In the United States alone around 30 million people will suffer from an eating disorder at some point in their life One of those 30 million people was Marion Reeves Perfectly Imperfect chronicles Marion's struggle with an eating disorder and depression Recovery from an eating disorder is a long hard process full of ups and downs While many people think that someone should be able to get better just by eating normally again that is not the case There is so much more to the process than just food Perfectly Imperfect shows how Marion was able to find freedom through relying on God receiving help from professionals and by being loved unconditionally by family and friends Her story reminds us of God's unrelenting pursuit of His children and His faithfulness even in the darkest times BOY Ernest Jordan,2024-12-01 Don't be nice boys
