Paid Servant E. R. Braithwaite, 2014-01-14 E R Braithwaite the acclaimed author of To Sir With Love poignantly recounts his time as a social worker dedicated to London's abandoned minority children Despite his Cambridge education and a sterling record with the British Royal Air Force during World War II E R Braithwaite a black man was unable to find employment as an engineer in post war London Instead he accepted a position as a teacher in a tough East End school and wrote of his experiences in his classic bestseller To Sir With Love Nine years later Braithwaite once again found himself assuming an unfamiliar professional role as a social worker charged with finding homes for London's orphaned abused or abandoned coloured children While he lacked formal training Braithwaite possessed qualities essential for the job compassion determination and a deep abiding understanding and love for the helpless lost and disregarded In Paid Servant E R Braithwaite shares his experiences in London's Department of Child Welfare focusing on the case of his four year old client Roddy a bright handsome mulatto boy who was rejected for adoption by both black and white families because he was not their own kind Everywhere he turned Braithwaite encountered racial prejudice But he was willing to fight for what he believed in and he believed in Roddy Writing with great power warmth and a deep belief in human dignity and worth Braithwaite offers a heartbreaking yet hopeful look into a society's attempt to care for its youngest most vulnerable citizens
