India Ian Derbyshire, 1995 The second most populous country of the world India is a country of enormous diversity yet its civilization and people have a remarkable unity It endured centuries of control by first Islamic and later European peoples Most recently independent India has been faced with resource and urban overcrowding pressures Encyclopedia of Religion ,2005 Maya In Radhakrishnan'S Thought Donald A. Braue,1984 Indian Philosophy and Yoga in Germany Owen Ware,2023-10-19 This book sheds new light on the fascinating at times dark and at times hopeful reception of classical Yoga philosophies in Germany during the nineteenth century When debates over God religion and morality were at a boiling point in Europe Sanskrit translations of classical Indian thought became available for the first time Almost overnight India became the centre of a major controversy concerning the origins of western religious and intellectual culture Working forward from this controversy this book examines how early translations of works such as the Bhagavad G t and the Yoga S tras were caught in the crossfire of another debate concerning the rise of pantheism as a doctrine that identifies God and nature It shows how these theological concerns shaped the image of Indian thought in the work of Schlegel Gunderrode Humboldt Hegel Schelling and others lasting into the nineteenth century and beyond Furthermore this book explores how worries about the perceived nihilism of Yoga were addressed by key voices in the early twentieth century Indian Renaissance notably Dasgupta Radhakrishnan and Bhattacharyya who defended sophisticated counterreadings of their intellectual heritage during the colonial era Written for non specialists Indian Philosophy and Yoga in Germany will be of interest to students and scholars working on nineteenth century philosophy Indian philosophy comparative philosophy Hindu studies intellectual history and religious history Encountering Religious Pluralism Harold Netland,2001-08-14 Harold Netland traces the emergence of the pluralistic ethos that challenges Christian faith and mission interacting heavily with philosopher John Hick and providing a framework for developing a comprehensive evangelical theology of religions 75 Wasted Years, Let us Catch Up and Leapfrog Vikram Sinha,2022-08-02 The author tears into the false narrative of India s progress since independence and the mirage of a glorious future created by the political class and the bureaucracy With facts data and a touching narration he reveals the plight of the poor and the unemployed through the decades One of the most agonizing facts that he highlights is that since independence India has fallen 100 places behind other countries in GDP per capita and with Bangladesh overtaking India on this parameter India is destined to remain the poorest large country in the world The book illustrates how Indians have become hostage to a crippled system that is unable to deliver Power brokers in the garb of politicians entrenched bureaucracy driven by self interest ineffective judiciary and elements of the fourth estate along with self seeking pseudo intellectuals have formed a powerful coalition to thwart any change in the system and policies which is essential for the transformation of India initiated from time to time by some progressive governments Based on his diagnosis of why India continues to fall by the wayside as also his insights into strategies governance systems and best practices of countries like South Korea China and others the author evolves a framework for the strategic transformation of India to Catch Up and Leapfrog these countries Indian

Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other. The question touches the roots of our theological views. The Religious Other: Hostility, Hospitality, and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness. How does one move from hostility to hospitality? How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds? What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness? This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology. By including Abrahamic and non-Abrahamic traditions, it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives, highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another.
