Radical Desire:

Amorous Acts Frances L. Restuccia, 2006 Amorous Acts uses psychoanalytic concepts to show how queer theory is operating to put in place a non heterosexist social order

Bad Education Lee Edelman, 2022-12-05 Long awaited after No Future and making queer theory controversial again Lee Edelman's Bad Education proposes a queerness without positive identity a queerness understood as a figural name for the void itself unnamable around which the social order takes shape Like Blackness woman incest and sex queerness as Edelman explains it designates the antagonism the structuring negativity preventing that order from achieving coherence But when certain types of persons get read as literalizing queerness the negation of their negativity can seem to resolve the social antagonism and totalize community By translating the nothing of queerness into the something of the queer the order of meaning defends against the senselessness that undoes it thus mirroring Edelman argues education's response to queerness its sublimation of irony into the meaningfulness of a world Putting queerness in relation to Lacan's ab sens and in dialogue with feminist and Afropessimist thought Edelman reads works by Shakespeare Jacobs Almod var Lemmons and Haneke among others to show why queer theory's engagement with queerness necessarily results in a bad education that is destined to teach us nothing

Stages of Desire Michael Kidd, 1999-07-01 Within the rich tradition of Spanish theater lies an unexplored dimension reflecting themes from classical mythology Through close readings of selected plays from early modern and twentieth century Spanish literature with plots or characters derived from the Greco Roman tradition Michael Kidd shows that the concept of desire plays a pivotal role in adapting myth to the stage in each of several historical periods In Stages of Desire Kidd offers a new way of looking at the theater in Spain Reviewing the work of playwrights from Juan del Encina to Luis Riaza he suggests that desire constitutes a central element in a large number of Greco Roman myths and shows how dramatists have exploited this to resituate ancient narratives within their own artistic and ideological horizons Among the works he analyzes are Timoneda's Tragicomedia llamada Filomena Castro's Dido y Eneas and Unamuno's Fedra Kidd explores how seventeenth century playwrights were constrained by the conventions of the newly formed national theater and how in the twentieth century mythological desire was exploited by playwrights engaged in upsetting the melodramatic conventions of the entrenched bourgeois theater He also examines the role of desire both in the demythification of prominent classical heroes during the Franco regime and in the cultural critique of institutionalized discrimination in the current democratic period Stages of Desire is an original and broad ranging study that highlights both change and continuity in Spanish theater By elegantly combining theory literary history and close textual analysis Kidd demonstrates both the resilience of Greco Roman myths and the continuing vitality of the Spanish stage

Radical Desire Housk Randall, Mark Ramsden, 2000 This highly illustrated work looks at all the radical extremes of sexual practice including tantric sex sex magick occult practice bondage erotic piercing fetishism erotic performance rubber sado masochism and bisexuality

Communist Study Derek R. Ford, 2022-01-14 In the second edition of this groundbreaking work Derek R Ford contends that radical politics needs educational theory posing a series of educational questions pertinent to revolutionary movements How can pedagogy bridge the gap between what is and what can be while respecting the gap and its uncertainty and contingency How can pedagogy accommodate ambiguity while remaining faithful to the communist project In answering these questions Ford develops a dynamic pedagogical constellation that radically opens up what education is and what it can mean for revolutionary struggle In charting this constellation Ford takes the reader on a journey that traverses disciplinary boundaries innovatively reading theorists as diverse as Lenin Agamben Marx Lyotard Althusser and Butler Demonstrating how learning underpins capitalism and democracy Ford articulates a theory of communist study as an alternative and oppositional logic that perhaps paradoxically demands the revolutionary reclamation of testing Poetic performative and provocative Communist Study is oriented toward what Ford calls the sublime feeling of being in common which as he insists is always a commonness against

Ethics, Aesthetics, and the Beyond of Language Robert Hughes, 2010-08-02 This book explores the relationship between literature and ethics showing how literature and art work to open up a part of ethics that resists traditional philosophy Focusing on three American Romantic texts Wieland The Legend of Sleepy Hollow and The Marble Faun Robert Hughes demonstrates how each dramatizes the ethical psychological and existential imperative to put the experience of our own traumatic limits death mortality and being into poetic language To develop the theoretical stakes of these literary readings Hughes also draws on four twentieth century continental thinkers Jacques Lacan Martin Heidegger Emmanuel Levinas and Alain Badiou each of whom in his own way proposed aesthetics or art as an approach to this dimension of ethics The book also points to an overlooked common lineage descending from German Romanticism between American Romanticism and contemporary post Romantic continental thought a shared supposition about the limits of reason as a mode of presenting the essence of art and ethics and a shared faith in the promise of literature to speak to or open up this subjective space of foundational ethics
